

Derick Wade Grover

September 29, 1970 - January 21, 2017

COLEBROOK, NH — Derick Wade Grover, 46, of Colebrook, passed away on Saturday, Jan. 21, 2017, at the Country Village Healthcare Center in Lancaster, with his loving family by his side.

He was born in West Stewartstown on Sept. 29, 1970, a son to Berkley and Mona (Collins) Grover. Derick was the Valedictorian of the Class of 1988 at Colebrook Academy. In high school, he was active in the band and chorus, and enjoyed participating in the drama club, and he wrote for the school news. Following high school, he enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps and was a veteran of the Persian Gulf conflict.

Derick's professional career as a community integrator took him to San Diego, Boston, Chicago, and finally back home to work for the Vershire Center in Colebrook. He was an avid reader and writer, and kept many journals. He enjoyed poetry and music, and had a talented singing voice. Derick was a sharp wit, with a sarcastic twist, and will be remembered by all his friends and family for his sense of humor and magnetic personality, and pranks that he loved to play on them.

He is survived by his six siblings and their families, Debbie Brooks and husband Rob of Stewartstown, Daniel Klebe and wife Carrie of Colebrook, Darren Klebe of Colebrook, Michelle Hamilton and husband Mike of Weare, NH, Carmen Rodrique and husband Ronny of Clarksville, and Scott Grover of Columbia; as well as many nieces, nephews and cousins. He also leaves behind his life-long and closest friend, Rachele Thivierge of Natick, Mass.

He is predeceased by his father in 2007 and his mother in 2014.

There will be no public calling hours. A graveside service and celebration of Derick's life will be held in the spring of 2017, of which notice will be given.

I was so sad to hear of Derick's passing. He was still so young the last time I saw him. He grew up to be such a wonderful and well loved person. My heart and thoughts go out to you, your family, and all who loved him and those whose lives he touched “ Derick Grover was one of those rare students whose intelligence simply amazes a teacher! He and Rachele Thivierge used to stop by our house to keep in touch after graduation, and I always enjoyed those visits so much! So much fun! They became lifelong friends, as so many of my former students from Colebrook have done. During the last few months, when I would visit Derick in Lancaster, he somehow managed to convey that same sense of humor, even as he struggled for every breath. Life can be so unfair, especially for the young. I will remember him in my prayers.

“ I'm going to miss so much about Derick. The way he would belt out a George Michael song better than George himself is one. He was so special, he was such an amazing guy. Goodbye Derick, I love you, and I'll always remember you.

“ Derek was a wonderful person with a whitty type of humor. We grew up together and though we only saw each other occasionally as adults whenever we did it was just like yesterday and Derek always had some funny memory to bring up where we could have a laugh. Sad to see my Cousin gone way too soon. My thoughts and prayers with his family. David Collins
