

Everett Stanton

May 13, 1927 - January 26, 2015

COLUMBIA – Everett Stanton, 87, of Columbia, passed away at the Northeastern Vermont Regional Hospital in St. Johnsbury on Monday morning, Jan. 26, 2015, after a long period of declining health.

Everett was born in Columbia on May 13, 1927, a son to the late Walter and Wilma (Whiting) Stanton. He attended the Cone School in Columbia and later entered the U.S. Navy during World War II. He was injured in basic training, was released from the military and returned home to the north country.

Everett then worked for a time at the Stratford Plywood Mill and later for the Groveton paper mill. He was drafted into the Army in 1952, and served his country with honor during the Korean conflict. Upon returning home again, Everett worked for a time for Cummings Chevrolet and later for Ethan Allen. He retired from the James River Corp. in Groveton in 1989.

Everett loved to drive and travel with his wife, and their adventures took them to California, Mexico, the Grand Canyon and Texas. He loved to tinker on things, and he even remodeled his entire home over the years.

He is survived by a daughter, Debra Hewson and husband Martin Hewson, Jr., of Derby Line, Vt.; a sister, Doris DeLong and her husband George of West Stewartstown; and one granddaughter, Jennifer Hewson of Nashville, Tenn.; as well as nieces, nephews and cousins.

He is preceded in death by his beloved wife of 64 years, Marion (Adair) Stanton in 2013, and a son, Eugene Stanton in 1973.

At Everett's specific request, there are no public services. A private burial will take place in the spring at the Colebrook Village Cemetery.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Mr. Stanton may be made to the Alzheimer's Healthcare Services, 610 Sullivan St., Berlin, NH 03570.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements in NH are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook.

Cemetery

Colebrook Village Cemetery

North Main Street, U.S. Route 3

Colebrook, NH,

Comments

“ Debbie, Marty and Jen, and all of Everett's family and friends. We are so sorry to hear of your great loss. We have been praying for you all, and know that the Lord is faithful to answer. Debbie, no one could have had a more faithful daughter than you. Your parents loved you dearly and were very proud of you. We will continue our prayers for the upcoming days, weeks, and months, as reality begins to set in. Blessings and hugs to you. Love, Lori and Jim MacDonald, Lisbon NH

Lori MacDonald - January 29, 2015 at 07:40 AM

“ Debbie and Marty and Jen I am so sorry for your loss. I know that things are hard right now but of you can pause a minute and give each other a hug since I cannot be thier to do that to all of you. Kim and Jim Sheltra

Kimberly Sheltra - January 27, 2015 at 06:19 PM

“ Faith K Beloin lit a candle in memory of Everett Stanton

Faith K Beloin - January 27, 2015 at 02:17 PM

“ I am so glad that I was part of Uncle Everetts life, I got to know him in the last few years, He will definetly be in my thoughts and memories every day. Love you Uncle Everett and will miss you. Everytime that I have Chines food I will remember our trips to Newport

Faith K Beloin - January 27, 2015 at 02:19 PM

“ Lisa Vashaw lit a candle in memory of Everett Stanton

Lisa Vashaw - January 27, 2015 at 01:28 PM

“ I will miss our chats, Mr. Stanton. Debbie; heartfelt condolences to you, and all of your family. Sending hugs.

Lisa and Bob Vashaw

Lisa Vashaw - January 27, 2015 at 01:28 PM

“ Debbie and Family Your Mom and Dad attended our church very faithfully for several years. Even during your mom's treatments they came whenever they could. As unhappy as your Dad was after your mom died, he still came to Church faithfully. I interviewed your Dad for the History of Columbia book and he loved telling us everything he could remember. He was a wealth of information. Your Mom always cooked whenever we had a food sale, supper or whatever. They were wonderful people. Rest assured that you did all any daughter could do and that your Dad is proud of you. My sympathies and prayers, Deb.

Patty Hart - January 27, 2015 at 11:52 AM

“ Keith And Billie Brockney lit a candle in memory of Everett Stanton

Keith and Billie Brockney - January 27, 2015 at 11:07 AM

“ Debbie and family so sorry for your lost but he now is with family he so dearly missed. you are in my thought.

Barbara and Joe Daley - January 27, 2015 at 10:55 AM