“ Bessie, your mother was a hard worker and thoughtful of others. I'm glad she got to spend her last years close to you. You have to have so many memories and you'll treasure those. My sympathy to you and all of Marion's family.

“ I have many fond memories growing up on the farm next to Marion's; I practically lived at her home. As a youngster I worked with her doing farm chores, bringing in the cows for milking, delivering eggs and milk to town and in the summer, haying fields up on Piper Hill and on the Mohawk. We took care of the animals together. We picked ticks off the sheep, we butchered hogs, and weeded her large garden. She had a hard life on the farm. She was always kind and considerate to me. I'd like to offer my sympathy to my childhood buddy Bessie and to the rest of Marion's family. May the Lord's face shine upon her. Pete Dowse
