

Richard 'Dick' C. Brady

August 18, 1945 - March 10, 2015

COLUMBIA – Richard ‘Dick’ C. Brady, 69, of Columbia, passed away at the Upper Connecticut Valley Hospital in Colebrook early on Tuesday morning, March 10, 2015, with his loving family by his side and after a 15-year courageous battle with cancer.

He was born on Aug. 18, 1945, in Exeter, NH, a son to Francis W. and Ruth (Smith) Brady. He was raised on the family farm in Newmarket, attended local schools, and later earned his associates degree from the Thompson School of Applied Science at UNH. In 1965, he moved with the family to the north country to continue a life-long passion in farming and other agricultural pursuits.

Over the years, Dick worked on the family dairy farm, produced hay for his own and other farms, worked as a cattle dealer, truck driver, and in many other endeavors. He was known far and wide by residents and tourists alike for his beautiful teams of Percheron horses and the hay rides provided at The Balsams and at numerous events throughout the north country. Dick also worked for many years in pyrotechnics, helping to provide fireworks displays at various events for many towns. He will be remembered by his many friends and family for his good nature, a boisterous laugh, and his willingness to always lend a helping hand. Dick was a former member of the Jaycees, a member of the Percheron Horse Association, and had been a state treasurer for the Future Farmers of America.

Dick leaves behind his loving wife, Julie Fournier of Columbia; his four children, A. Winfield “Wimp” Brady and wife Jeannine of Lemington, Vt., Ann Thibeault and partner Scott True of Lee, NH, Chris Brady and wife Joyce of Columbia, and Megan Rohrbacher of Rochester, NH; his mother, Ruth (Smith) Brady of Columbia; his brother James Brady and wife Betty of Lee; a sister, Kathleen Brady of Columbia; his beloved aunt, Josephine (Brady) Lachance of East Colebrook; 11 grandchildren, Patrick Brady, Abigail Brady, Skyler Brady, Tristan Brady, Jenna Brady, Reid Thibeault, Erin Thibeault, Earl Brady, Jacob Brady, Max Rohrbacher and Sydney Rohrbacher; his step-daughter, Samantha Fournier; and his beloved Percheron companions, Diamond, Molly and Princess.

He is predeceased by his father in 2011.

Memorial calling hours will be on Saturday, March 14, 2015, from 2-4 and 6-8 p.m. at the Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook, NH. A graveside service will be held in the spring at the Colebrook Village Cemetery, of which notice will be given.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Dick may be made to the Norris Cotton Cancer Center at Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center, 1 Medical Center Dr., Lebanon, NH 03756, where Dick had received excellent care and was proud to have partaken in important cancer research studies for the past 10 years under the supervision of Dr. Marc Pipas who he considered to be a friend.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements in NH are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook.

“ I used to enjoy talking with Dick now and then catching up on farm gossip. The Brady family has put in endless hours doing hayrides for the community. Dick took obvious pride in his horses and his horsemanship showed. The community certainly appreciates Dick's dedication and he will be dearly missed. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the Brady family at this difficult time.

“ I was very fortunate to have worked with Dick, Julie, and his beautiful horses when I worked at the Ski Area Garage at the Balsams. He worked to a different time than most as his horses set that rhythm for him. He was one of a kind and a true friend. He had so many wonderful stories of he and his father's "old" times. The weather and cold might slow them down a bit, but they were always there and did their job. My sympathy goes out to everyone in the family for your loss. I have so many great memories that I will always cherish.

“ We are so glad that we became acquainted with Dick and Julie and wish that we had known them for a much longer time. Dick was one of those special people who you like as soon as you meet. We are so happy that we were able to attend the Moose Festival and enjoy a ride in his wagon, pulled by his beautiful horses. It also gave us a chance to see the area and people that helped make Dick the man that he was. Thanksgiving dinner will not be the same without him. We are thankful to have a part of Annie's family join a part of our family.

Thanks for the memories - farewell to a courageous man.

“ Dick Brady was a very special friend. We didn't cross paths often, but each time was very memorable and he enjoyed seeing my cows as much as I enjoyed his horses. Until now, we were both cancer survivors and that was special bond because we both cared for the progress of the other. He was a fighter, also, and the last time we spoke, he had a big smile and said ' I am feeling pretty good' and How are you doing?,then headed out to care for his beloved horses.

Our sincere condolences to Julie and all of his family. May Dick rest in peace with reins in his hands.

“ Our deepest condolences go out to the entire Brady family on your loss of Dick. I crossed paths with Dick over the years from transporting my animals to the fair to just stopping and chatting at local establishments. Sometimes those chats took a little longer than either of us planned but were very much welcomed.

“ Many, many thoughts and prayers for Chris and all the Brady family at this time of such a great loss. I'll always remember riding on his wagon along Main St. and talking with him along the way. I'm so glad I've got pictures that I took this past winter, and I'll also miss seeing him drive by en route to take care of his horses and Mrs. LaChance. We always waved, and he told me how he always saw my x-ctry ski tracks.

He will rest in peace, we know.

“ i'll never forget matty's first ride with Dick at the moose Festival. It was like Matty was his tour guide. Telling the people in the back of the wagon to settle down...lol Dick was so wonderful to Matty letting him ride up front with him everytime. He will be sooooo missed by us. The rides just won't be the same anymore.
