

Tabor P. Gray

April 25, 1925 - February 7, 2015

PITTSBURG – Tabor Patrick Gray, 89, of Pittsburg passed away at the Coös County Nursing Hospital in West Stewartstown on Saturday afternoon, Feb. 7, 2015, after a period of declining health and surrounded by his loving family.

He was born on April 25, 1925, in Pittsburg, a son of the late Leroy and Linnie (Young) Gray. As a youth, he was a Boy Scout and 4-H member. He was a 1943 graduate of Pittsburg High School, and then entered the U.S. Army during World War II, serving with honor with the 19th Infantry in the Phillipines and Japan. He was a staff sergeant at the time of his discharge. After the war, Tabor attended the Thompson School of Agriculture at UNH, graduating in 1949.

Tabor met his loving wife, Eunice Jeffers, in 1953 and they were married in September of that year. He worked for a few years as a herdsman for the Coös County Farm prior to purchasing his own dairy farm where he had resided for his entire life, and where he and Eunice raised their own family. Tabor took great satisfaction in producing quality milk that received awards from both Agri-Mark and Hood. The Grays worked the farm until retiring in 1990. Tabor also enjoyed gardening and spending time with his family, and his later years, he enjoyed cooking. He spent much time reading and enjoyed studying the Bible.

Both he and Eunice were members of the Farnham Memorial United Methodist Church in Pittsburg, and they were very much involved in the Lakeside camp meetings for 18 years.

Tabor leaves behind his three sons, Harold and wife Sandy of Groveton, Leonard and wife Tammy of Pittsburg, and Keith Gray of Laconia; a daughter, Rose Hicks and husband Irving of Clarksville; eight grandchildren, Erin Blanchard and husband Michael of Pittsburg, Kaylan Gray and fiancé Douglass of Colebrook, Ronnie and Leon Hicks of Pittsburg, Monica Labrance, Jenn Tetreault of Whitefield, Lauren Tetreault of Keene and Nathan Tetreault of Groveton; eight great-grandchildren; as well as nieces, nephews and sisters-in-law.

He is preceded in death by his beloved wife Eunice in 2003, and a brother, Robert Gray in 2007.

At Tabor's specific request, there are no public calling hours. A funeral service will be held on Friday, Feb. 13, 2015, at 1 p.m. at the Farnham Memorial United Methodist Church in Pittsburg with The Rev. Paula Fletcher officiating. Burial will be in the spring at the Indian Stream Cemetery.

“ Uncle Tabor - as your birthday approaches, you are on my mind...remembering what a good time we had at your 80th party - hard to believe that 10 years have passed. Although everyone is complaining about the snow, you are probably grinning at the good luck of extra fertilizer. The meadows will green up soon enough and the seasons will pass much too quickly. Love you and miss you.

“ Tabor Gray was a good neighbor, a good farmer and a very good friend. While we never visited long at a time, our paths crossed often and when visiting him in his home in later years, his love of farming and his understanding of all that goes with it never waned. While always concerned about his family, he rarely complained of his own issues but rather, asked me about my farm and my health. Tabor was quite a historian and I wish that I took notes during those stories of times past. A daily paper and the weekly market bulletin were always close to his place at the kitchen table, overlooking the valley. A farmer in Texas, who neither of us knew, once said, "Live Simply, Live Generously, Care Deeply, Speak Kindly, Leave the Rest to God" That was Tabor. We will all miss him.

“ While the family gathered with Uncle Tabor to say good-bye and to offer comfort and support, along with the grief and sadness, there were also times of sharing memories, stories and getting caught up with the cousins... I think Uncle Tabor, in some way deep down, was able to appreciate us being together. The love and tenderness expressed by his children gave testament to his goodness as a father and family man. His spirit, along with those of others who have left us will be felt in the valley, with each foggy morning, with the winds that whip up the flat, with the snow that quiets the earth, each calf that enters the world, and with every bale of hay - the smells, the sounds and the goodness of a much loved man gone to his rest ... Tubby & Tabor, together again. We will be thinking of Rose, Harold, Leonard and Keith as the days pass, and the grief is eventually replaced with a sense of peace. Pam & Wayne.

“ We loved Uncle Tabor and visited with him often. He was a great man of deep faith and a good example for us all. He will be greatly missed by all of us, but we are comforted to know that he is now in Heaven, reunited with Aunt Eunice, and rejoicing in being with our Lord. Love, Lindsey and Ann and family.
