

Alfred J. Leblanc Jr.

October 24, 1952 - October 10, 2019

CLARKSVILLE – Alfred J. Leblanc, Jr., 66, passed away at his home in Clarksville on Oct. 10, 2019.

Born in Stoneham, Mass., on Oct. 24, 1952, he was the son of the late Alfred and Audrey Leblanc.

He was raised in the Boxford and Topsfield, Mass., and was a graduate of Boxford High School.

Al was always an entrepreneurial sort, and soon after high school he started his own business installing after-market stereo systems in cars. He later relocated with his young family to Texas for a couple of years, where he was in the home mortgage business, and then returning to Pelham area to begin in the home renovation business. He moved to Clarksville in 1997, where for the past twenty years he was a small farmer.

Al was one who believed in service to his community, and he was former selectman for the Town of Clarksville. He also served terms as a trustee of cemeteries and on the school board.

He was a dog lover his entire life, and he truly enjoyed time spent with his grandchildren.

He is survived by his two sons, A. Joseph Leblanc III of Litchfield, NH, and Jonathan Leblanc of Concord, NH; and three grandchildren. He also leaves behind a brother and three sisters.

There are no public services scheduled at this time.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements are entrusted to the care of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home, Colebrook, NH.
