

Alice Day Williams

April 6, 1925 - January 17, 2009

COLEBROOK, NEW HAMPSHIRE – Mrs. Alice Day Williams, 83, of Colebrook, New Hampshire, passed away peacefully at her home early Saturday morning, January 17, 2009.

Mrs. Williams was born April 6, 1925, in Hiram, ME, the oldest child of Stephen and Annie (Siedlinger) Anthony.

Mrs. Williams lived in Farmington, NH, and in Rochester, NH, before moving to Colebrook five years ago to be closer to her family and the North Country that she so enjoyed. Her greatest passion was being a wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, and she loved her family dearly.

Mrs. Williams is survived by two sons, Perley Day, Jr. of Snowville, NH, and Percy Day and wife, Joyce, of Farmington, NH; three daughters, Katherine Westleigh of Bethel, ME, and Bonnie Day and Arleen Douglas, both of Colebrook with whom she resided; a brother, Richard Anthony of Florida; nine grandchildren; 23 great-grandchildren; three great-great grandchildren; and an extended family of Arleen's children and grandchildren whom she loved as her own. Her family will be forever grateful for all of the years that they shared with her and she will be with them always.

Mrs. Williams is preceded in death by her first husband, Perley Day, Sr.; her second husband, Claude Williams; a step-son, Alfred Day; a sister, Arlene; and a brother, Raymond.

At Mrs. William's request, there will be no calling hours. A private family service will be held in the spring at the Colebrook Village Cemetery.
