

Alice N. Carleton

June 25, 1930 - April 27, 2010

COLEBROOK, NH – Mrs. Alice N. Carleton, 79, of Colebrook, NH, died on Tuesday afternoon, April 27, 2010, at the Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center in Lebanon, NH, after a period of failing health.

She was born on June 25, 1930, in Bow, NH, a daughter of the late Roy and Hilda (Duford) Wescomb.

Prior to moving to the north country in early 1988, Alice was a teacher at the Heritage Christian School in Concord, NH. She continued teaching in Colebrook at the Community Baptist Church School. Alice was a woman of great faith and was very dedicated to her church. She was very involved in all activities at Colebrook's Community Baptist Church, and taught Sunday school there for many years. Alice also served as the church secretary and treasurer for a period of time. She was an avid reader and loved to read the Bible.

Alice enjoyed watching the birds at her feeder, and she loved being a grandmother to her precious grandchildren. She loved children and enjoyed her time around them. She also loved to cook.

She is survived by two daughters, Linda Fowler and husband Gerard of Allenstown, NH, and Deborah Patenaude of Sacramento, Calif.; a son, John Carleton and wife, Christine, of Colebrook, NH; three sisters, Dorothy Perkins of Meredith, NH, Millie Perry of Allenstown, and Jean Southworth of Ohio; a brother, Ernest West of Virginia; a half-sister, Jane Wescomb of Pittsfield, NH; two half-brothers, Nelson and Norman Wescomb of NH; four grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; a nephew and several nieces.

Alice is preceded in death by her husband, Bruce Carleton, in 1999.

A funeral service will be held at 3 p.m. on Sunday, May 2, 2010, at the Community Baptist Church in Colebrook, NH. Friends and family are invited to visit at the church prior to the service from 2 -3 p.m. An interment service will follow at a later date at the Colebrook Village Cemetery.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Mrs. Carleton may be made to the NH Chapter of the American Diabetes Assn., 249 Canal St., Manchester NH 03101; or to the Community Baptist Church, c/o Mari Voisine, Treasurer, 15 Bridge St., Colebrook, NH 03576.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home, Colebrook, NH.

“ Dear John and family and all of Alice's family: We count it a great blessing and privilege to have known Alice during our time of involvement with Community Baptist School and afterwards. She had a tremendous impact on our children while students at CBS. During one school year, she and Bruce volunteered to babysit for our two youngest boys while their mother helped at the school every Friday. What a big heart! We rejoice that she is now with her Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, no longer physically sick! You are all in our prayers, Jerry,Paulette, Ben, Justin, Jared###imported-begin###Jerry and Paulette Owen###imported-end##

“ Dear John and family (and all of Alice's family); Please accept our sincere condolences on the loss of your dear Mom, Alice. She was a wonderful Godly woman, and someone that I looked up to very much. When my girls used to go to CBS, I know that they also loved her very much. She is now with her Lord and Savior! May the prayers of others and may the Holy Spirit bring you all the comfort and strength that you need during this difficult time.

Sincerely,

Lori (Parkhurst) and James MacDonald,
