

Almon "Josh" Young

February 6, 1924 - July 18, 2011

CLARKSVILLE, NH -- Mr. Almon "Josh" Young, 87, of Clarksville, NH, passed away on Monday evening, July 18, 2011, at the Upper Connecticut Valley Hospital in Colebrook, after a long period of declining health.

He was born in Clarksville, NH, on February 6, 1924, a son to the late Merle and Bessie (Thompson) Young.

After attending local schools, Josh operated the family farm for many years, and he later owned and operated his own construction business. He was the road agent for the Town of Clarksville for about 15 years, and he was also a selectman for the town for many years.

He enjoyed his home, his family and his many friends and neighbors. His home was always open and welcoming to his friends and neighbors with whom he loved to visit. In his younger years, Josh liked to hunt and fish, but his favorite pasttime was working with his construction equipment with his dog, "Lucky," by his side.

Josh is survived by his daughter, Marie Conroy, of Clarksville; two granddaughters, Kimberlee Esposito and family of Wilmot, NH, and Kara Sweatt and family of Stewartstown; two sisters, Beulah Allen of Claremont, NH, and Leitha Brown of Colebrook; three great-grandchildren; and two nephews, Richard Young and family of Hatfield, Mass., and Alan Lay and family of Huntsville, Ala.

He is preceded in death by his loving wife of 60 years, Arlene "Sue" Young in 2008; a sister, Norma Lay; and a niece, Jennifer Stoll.

At his specific request, there will be no calling hours. A private family graveside service and burial will take place in the Young Cemetery in Clarksville.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home, Colebrook, NH.
