

Andres P. Goodreau

March 7, 1941 - December 26, 2015

COLUMBIA — Andres P. Goodreau, 74, of Columbia, died peacefully at his home surrounded by his loving family late Saturday morning, Dec. 26, 2015, after a period of failing health.

Andy was born on March 7, 1941, in Northumberland, the only child of the late Andres E. and Violet M. (Daniels) Goodreau. He was affectionately known by almost all of his friends as “Bozo.”

In his younger years, Andy and his young family worked at farming in Derby, Vt., where he was born again and was introduced into a life-long service for the Lord. Upon returning to NH, he worked for the rest of his career as a truck driver, and for the past few years in retirement, Andy enjoyed volunteering for Tri-County CAP.

He was a member of the Community Baptist Church in Colebrook for 40 years, and at one time served as both deacon and a trustee. Andy loved to hunt and fish, riding his 4-wheeler, snowmobiling and racing cars at the Groveton Speedway in his younger days, and he cherished time spent with his family. Until his last day, he never lost his sense of humor, or his love for his God and Savior.

Andy leaves behind his beloved wife of 56 years, Pauline (LeBlanc) Goodreau of Columbia; five daughters, Donna Bouthillier and partner Mike Brisbin of Maidstone, Vt., Cathy Edwards and husband Doug of Errol, Paula White and husband Larry of Columbia, Debbie Broome and husband David of Colebrook, and Chrissy Goodreau of Colebrook; twelve grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

He is preceded in death by his son, Paul Goodreau, in 1996.

Calling hours will be on Tuesday, Dec. 29, 2015, from 4 to 7 p.m. at the Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook. A funeral service will be held the next morning, Wednesday, Dec. 30, at 11 a.m. at the Community Baptist Church in Colebrook with Pastor Justin Weberg officiating. An interment service will occur in the spring of 2016 in the Fairview Cemetery in North Stratford.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Mr. Goodreau may be made to the Community Baptist Church, 15 Bridge St., Colebrook, NH 03576.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home, Colebrook, NH.

“ My most sincere and deepest condolences for your loss. I knew Andy for only about a year, but we formed a good friendship in that time. I was one of the people he transported to medical appointments. We both survived a moose accident together. I admired him greatly and enjoyed his company. I am deeply saddened and sorry about his passing. May God Bless his wife and family and give them all strength. Best regards, Russell Angel (603)636-0030

“ Pauline,
We were sad to hear that Andy passed. It is bitter sweet to know that he is not with you any more but is with the Lord and waiting to receive his new body! All those that name the Lord as savior have a hope that will not disappoint! Those that put their faith in Him will be reunited with the believers that have gone on before them. Pauline, I know you have that hope. I pray that the Lord will be lifting you up in the days ahead. God is good! Philippians 1:6

“ *Dearest Pauline,
You have been on my mind for the last few weeks, when I heard about Andy and how sick he was. I remember all the wonderful times we had at CBC for the time I was a member there. Andy always had a smile for everyone and a wonderful spirit about him. You were such a great example of a Christian couple to everyone. I know you will miss Andy terribly and life here will never be the same, but Praise the Lord for what comfort you have knowing you will spend eternity together praising and worshipping our Lord and Saviour! I won't be able to attend the calling hours as I have difficulty with my balance and walking. And my driveway isn't passable and won't be until later tonight. If all the snow is taken care of by morning I will try for the funeral. But please know you are in my heart and prayers. I will call you soon so we can visit. Please extend my sympathy to all the girls. You will always be a dear sister in the Lord, though we don't often see each other.
Love and heartfelt sympathy,
Lynne*

“ *Pauline & Family
Our prayers are with you. We have warm memories of Andy, his love for fishing, love for his family, but most of all is quiet spirit and love for his Lord. 2Cor 5:8 says We are confident , I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. We will see you again Andy.

“ to the goodreau family,
Bozo was a great man- fought a long time with his health toward the end and he will be missed. God takes the best in his home and Bozo truly earned it.

“ Dear Pauline & Family
Our thoughts and prayers are continually with you at this difficult time. We treasure the wonderful times that we have had together.
Sharing our love for the Lord Jesus was definitely " a tie that binds".
We are so thankful to have just seen you both. How wonderful to have the blessed hope of seeing Andy again. May the Lord be your constant strength. With loving thoughts and our deepest sympathy.
