“ To my cousins, You Mother was a wonderful Aunt to us. I have this great memory of visiting at the farm in Canaan. I was impressed at how efficiently she managed the household, farm, huge garden, her family and made room for us "summer visitors" even though it was probably her busiest season. I remember being impressed at how strong and honest she was and always carried that with me. Even though I have not seen her for years I feel the void at her passing. I send my sympathies as well as those of her sister, Florence and my brother Gerry and Sally who are in Europe presently.##imported-begin##Diane Bergeron Vega##imported-end##
