

Anthony Palermo, Jr.

June 1, 1927 - November 3, 2004

Mr. Anthony Palermo, Jr., 77, of East Colebrook Road, Colebrook, NH, passed away Wednesday evening, November 3, 2004, at the Upper Connecticut Valley Hospital. Mr. Palermo was born June 1, 1927, in Danbury, CT, son of the late Anthony Palermo, Sr. and Theresa (Tambone) Palermo. Mr. Palermo married Carolyn (Piskura) Palermo in 1950 and shortly thereafter joined the United States Army. He was honorably discharged after a year of service to return home to help his family. He owned and operated an asphalt driveway service for 15 years and then worked for the Public Works Department for the City of Danbury, Ct, until his retirement at the age of 65. He loved to fish and hunt and it was his enjoyment of the outdoors that brought him to Colebrook and led to the building of his East Colebrook Road home with friends. Mr. Palermo is survived by his wife of 54 years, Carolyn Palermo of Colebrook, NH; two sons, Anthony Palermo, III of Colebrook, NH, and Paul Palermo of Bonner, Montana; his daughter, Mary Montesi and husband, Eugene, of Danbury, CT; one granddaughter, Nicole and three step-grandchildren, Lacy, Stephanie and Brandon. Calling hours will be held on Tuesday, November 9, 2004, from 4-7 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus, Shelter Rock Road, Danbury, CT. A private interment service will be held at the convenience of the family.
