

Arlene M. Heath

March 24, 1908 - February 22, 2004

Mrs. Arlene M. Heath, 95, passed away Sunday, February 22, 2004, at her home in West Springfield, MA, after a long illness.

Mrs. Heath was born March 24, 1908, in Canaan, VT, the daughter of the late William I. and Myrtie (Chamberlain) Dwinell.

In 1959 she moved to West Springfield, MA, and worked as a nanny and housekeeper until age 70. She became blind 22 years ago and lived alone until the age of 93. She was an inspiration to her family and those with whom she came in contact, and she never had a complaint. Mrs. Heath was married to Claude Heath.

She is survived by two sons, Claude Heath of Harrison, ME, and Guy Heath of Westbrook, ME; four daughters, Claudia Dustin and Barbara Johnston, both of Colebrook, NH; and Bertha Roberson and Claudette Weatherby of West Springfield, MA; twenty grandchildren, twenty-nine great-grandchildren, and sixteen great-great grandchildren, as well as many nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Heath is preceded in death by her husband in 1940 and one son, Sherwood Heath, and five brothers and sisters.
