“ It's with a sad heart that I am just now learning of my friend Bud's passing. I first met Bud at Hymmel Brook Estates in North Statford. Then I bought a piece of property on Gray Rd. He watched over my house for me. I lost track of Bud when my wife, Nancy, and I moved to Arizona. Bud was a good man and I will miss him.

“ You have been the best Big Brother I could ask for. I have so many childhood memories. What a blast we had building our house with family and friends. You would taunt me with "Betty Boop hurry up!" Save my seat Baron, Betty Boop will see you later. Love you Betty.

“ Although life has separated us over the years, I love you Dad. I have many fond memories of my childhood. I could always find you tinkering away in the garage, hear you coming because your keys would clink, always sharing your gum, eating ice cream by the gallon, pulling multiple papers from your front pocket and your hats!! Say hello to Danny and Karon for me.
