“ Thoughts and prayers to the Covill family on Bernard's passing. I always remember him when I go up to Klondyke Camp because he and his wife always kept the trail up there well packed when we used to go up there with our sled dogs.

May he rest in peace.

“ One of the nicest men you could ever hope to meet... Bernard and his lovely wife where the nicest pair ever... Doug and I first met them in the early 1970's... Bernard would explain the snowmobile trails to all of us flat-landers for hours at a time... We loved hearing his stories of days gone by...Bernard and Embert were quite a pair... Oh for the days of yesteryear... There is a very special angel in heaven tonight...Brenda B. Machos
