

Bernard L. Kimball Jr.

September 24, 1960 - March 29, 2022

COLEBROOK – Bernard L. Kimball, Jr., 61, of Colebrook, passed away peacefully on Tuesday evening, March 29, 2022, at the Upper Connecticut Valley Hospital.

He was born on Sept. 24, 1960, in Whitefield, a son to the late Bernard and Mary (Kelly) Kimball, Sr.

Bernie was a familiar face in Colebrook, with many friends. He worked at the Wilderness Restaurant and also helped with the Senior Meals program. He was a kind soul who loved to help if he could. He was also an animal lover and loved to tell his friends about his pets. Bernie always enjoyed attending his family's reunion picnics in Vermont.

He is survived by two aunts, Hilda St. Laurent and Mona Kelley, and his cousins, Myrtle Kelley and Heidi St. Laurent; as well as his many friends in Colebrook.

A graveside interment service for Bernie will be held on Saturday, July 16, 2022, at 12:30 p.m. in the Colebrook Village Cemetery.

Condolences may be offered to the family online by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Arrangements are entrusted to the care of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook.

“ Bernie had a lot to be proud of. He worked his way out of having a guardian and he was one of the most financially responsible people I've ever met. He had a big heart and loved his pets dearly. He was outspoken when he thought something was wrong. He took work seriously and loved being busy. He decorated the graves of his parents every year. I was lucky to have known Bernie.
