

Beverley J. Parker

May 5, 1935 - March 9, 2006

Mrs. Beverley J. (Goodsell) Parker, 70, of Marshall Hill Road, Columbia, NH, passed away Thursday, March 9, 2006, at the Upper Connecticut Valley Hospital. Beverley was born May 5, 1935, in Rock Island, P.Q., Canada, to the late George and Elsie (Brown) Goodsell. Beverley lived and worked in the Newport, VT, area until she married Leonard Parker of Columbia in 1968. Leonard and Beverley established Macarico Stables with their three beloved Morgan horses: Mac, Carrie and Cocoa. Over the years, Leonard and Beverley welcomed many in need into their home. Aggie, Arthur, Pam, Margaret and Jane shared their home as if it were their own. They also took in several humane society dogs. She loved helping people find and buy their dream home. She added her own personal touches to her profession as a real estate agent and remained a close friend to many of her clients. Beverley will be sadly missed by her children, Terrence Gosselin and wife, Julie, of Essex Junction, VT, Leonard "Billy" Parker and wife, France, of Colebrook, NH, Ronald Parker and wife, Marie, of Columbia, NH, Linda MacKinnon and husband, Ronald, of Littleton, NH, Cynthia Chase of Littleton, NH, and Cheryl Lentz and husband, Jerry, of Montpelier, VA; a sister, Shirley Longarini and husband, John, of Ontario; fourteen grandchildren; fourteen great-grandchildren; many nieces and nephews; her best friends; and her puppies, Nikki and Toto. Beverley was preceded in death by her husband, Leonard Parker in 1993; a son, Stephen Gosselin ("The Auto Man") in 1979; three brothers, Lawrence, Carroll and Norman Goodsell; and a sister, Dorothy

Wood. There will be no calling hours. A graveside service will be conducted on Saturday, May 6, 2006, at 1:00 p.m. at the Colebrook Village Cemetery. Expressions of sympathy in Beverley's memory may be made to the North Country Humane Society, c/o Joan Shatney, Pleasant Street, Colebrook, NH 03576.
