

Bob Owen

February 28, 1925 - June 6, 2004

Mr. Bob Owen, 79, of Stewartstown, NH, passed away early Sunday morning, June 6, 2004, at the Morrison Nursing Home in Whitefield, NH.

Mr. Owen was born February 28, 1925, in Stewartstown.

Mr. Owen lived a very interesting life. He attended North Hill School in Stewartstown and as a young man, he hauled guests to the Hurlbert sporting camps by a team of horses and sleigh. He worked in the woods for his uncle, Bill Owen, skidding logs and driving teams. He hauled canned milk for another uncle, Nelson Owen. He worked in construction for Clyde Gray for over 20 years while also driving truck for Lewis Oil from Portland, ME, during the winter months. His employment also included working for Lucien Dion for 10 years and for George Gould running a pay loader. He operated a hydraulic loader for Warren "Pic" Haynes. He retired in 1982, but continued working part-time for the McAllaster farm in Stewartstown until his health would not allow him to continue.

Mr. Owen is survived by his family: Rod McAllaster, his wife Donna and son Paul, of Stewartstown, NH; a brother, Peter Daley of Lemington, VT; and several aunts, uncles and cousins.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Almore Owen Daley and a brother,

John Daley.

Calling hours will be held on Tuesday, June 8, 2004, from 7-9 p.m. at the Jenkins Funeral Home in Colebrook. A funeral service will be conducted on Wednesday, June 9th at 1:00 p.m. at the North Hill Church in Stewartstown, NH, with Pastor Larry Clough officiating. An interment service will follow at the Stewartstown Hollow Cemetery.
