

Charles C. Haynes

January 7, 1963 - April 26, 2025

COLUMBIA – Charles C. ‘Chaunce’ Haynes, 62, of Columbia, passed away unexpectedly at his home on Saturday, April 26, 2025.

He was born in W. Stewartstown on Jan. 7, 1963, a son to the late Harry E. and Marie-Cecile (Marois) Haynes, Sr. He attended school in Colebrook.

For his whole life, Chaunce was a hard worker, mostly as a self-employed logger. He also worked at Barrotto Granite and for VR Concrete. He was an avid sports fan and loved to watch NASCAR races and his favorite NFL team, the N.Y. Giants, with his brother, Fred. Although his son, Greg, is a Dallas Cowboys fan, they still loved each other anyway. Chaunce looked forward to receiving the football schedule every fall from his uncle Albert and they would then talk about the season.

He also loved to play cribbage with his family members, mow the lawn at camp, and just to relax, reading a book at camp. He always had a nickname for everyone he knew. He especially loved to be with his beloved feline companion, Jazzy. Chaunce will always be remembered for his beautiful blue eyes, kind heart, and the “Haynes’ Strut.” He is loved by many and will be forever remembered in their hearts.

He is survived by his son, Gregory Baker; his siblings, Ralph Haynes, Fred (Jeri) Haynes, Harry (Teri) Haynes, Evelyn (James) Haynes-Kenney; his aunt, Evelyn (Marois) Gionet; his uncle, Theodore Marois; and Laverna Cass; as well as numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

He is predeceased by a son, Stephen Baker, his sister, Eva (Susie) Haynes, and numerous other aunts, uncles, and extended family.

Memorial calling hours will be held on Tuesday, May 6, 2025, from 5 to 7 p.m. at the Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook. Interment will be at a later date in the Colebrook Village Cemetery.

Expressions of sympathy to help defray final expenses may be made directly to Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home, 103 Main St., Colebrook, NH 03576.

Condolences may be offered on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Arrangements have been entrusted to the care of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook.

"Rest in peace, BK."

“ I remember vividly where we sat, together, in the basement of St. Stephen's church for our year of kindergarten. We were great pals who often got spoken to by Mrs. Berry for talking too much. One day during snack time, he looked at me and asked in his little Froggy voice of Little Rascals, "Why don't you call me Chauncy like everyone else?" I replied, "Because your name is Charles." From that day forward, whenever we saw each other, he greeted me with, "Weldon", and I greeted him with, "Charles". When I adopted my son, Bennett, I took him to meet Charles. He was so pleased to have met Bennett. I told Bennett that he could always count on Charles if he ever needed any help. Bennett said, "OK, but why did he call you Weldon?" I shared the encounter during Kindergarten and how my first name is Weldon. Bennett held onto that story because Charles was so welcoming whenever we saw each other. And now I like to think that Bennett is welcoming Charles to that other realm of reality, whatever that may be.

“ *Ralph, Sissy, Harry and Fritz,
My heart is so sad for you all. Growing up out in Columbia was special and kept us close for years to come. We had so many good times, I am very sorry to see Chauncey leave us, but he is with Goodie and Pee - Wee and all the rest....I hope you can find some comfort in the days to come knowing how much he truly meant to so many.*

*With love,
