“ We remember your Mom so well from the Pittsburg Historical Society and Farnham Church. I always admired the way she braided her beautiful long hair. We were sorry that we couldn't attend the service but Earl had an emergency doctor visit in Berlin at 10AM.
She and your father were wonderful people who served the Lord and community well.

She always put a smile on my face when I saw or talked to her. I"ll never forget when she came into the bank and gave me a souvenir from her trip she took about 4 years ago. I will cherish that forever.

“ Daphne and Family,
I am truly sorry for your loss. Your mother was a remarkable person. I met her and your dad twenty-six years ago when my husband and I moved to Pittsburg with our three children. Over the span of those years, anytime we met your parents they greeted us warmly like we were family.
