

Claire R. Hebert Barden

February 5, 1936 - June 22, 2016

PITTSBURG – Claire R. Hebert Barden, 80, passed away on Wednesday, June 22, 2016, at the Concord Hospice House in Concord, NH, with her loving children by her side and after a long battle with cancer.

Claire was born in Sainte Thecle, Quebec, on Feb. 5, 1936, the daughter of the late Eucharist and Florida (Beland) Lesieur. She was raised in Canada and later moved to Colebrook where she worked in the hospitality industry all of her life, including the Spa restaurant, the American Legion, the Colebrook Country Club, and The Balsams, to name a few. She finally reached her life-long dream of becoming a “snow bird” and enjoyed spending her winters in sunny Brooksville Fla., and her summers in serene Pittsburg. Claire was loved by all for her loving and caring nature, and she took great pride in being involved in her family and friends’ lives. She was an avid cribbage player, a game that she took very seriously. She will be dearly missed by family and friends alike.

Claire is survived by her husband, Timothy Barden of Florida; a son, Gilles Hebert of Manchester NH; a daughter, Louise Linnell and husband Gary of Sacramento, Calif.; her grandson who she lovingly raised, Eric Hebert of Hooksett NH; three sisters, Jeannine Gauthier, Liette and husband Urban Bergeron, Lise and husband Noel Allaire; many grandchildren, Tyler Robinson-Hebert, Jason Linnell, Michelle Johnson, Lori Hibbard, Carolynn Castillo, Sophie Hebert, and Natalie Hebert; several great grandchildren, and many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

She was predeceased by three children, Suzanne Hebert, Michael Hebert, and Linda Hebert; five brothers, Denis, Real, Paul, Anaicet, and Nelson Lesieur; and a sister, Pauline.

Calling hours will be held on Wednesday, June 29, 2016, from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook. A graveside interment service will be held the next morning, Thursday, June 30, at 11 a.m. at St. Brendan's Cemetery in Colebrook with The Rev. Craig Cheney presiding.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Claire may be made to the Half Moon Sober Festival, Inc., P.O. Box 502, Derry, NH 03038.

Gilles, Louise, Eric and families-Your Mom was such a great part of 'the neighborhood' while growing up. I remember when she first moved here, we kids helped her learn English (she tried to teach us French, but she didn't have very good students!); the morning coffee and muffins with her, my Mom and Priscilla; later on in life, playing '31' while having many, many laughs. We laughed together during the good times and cried together during the bad times-such a strong woman. Even though we didn't see each other often over the past few years, she was never away from my heart. Claire, you will never be forgotten.

*Love,
Rosemary*
