

Clayton L. Stevens

January 10, 1918 - May 30, 2015

CANAAN – Clayton L. Stevens, 97, of Canaan, died on Saturday evening, May 30, 2015, at the Upper Connecticut Valley Hospital in Colebrook.

He was born on Jan. 10, 1918, in Haverhill, Mass., the son of the late Arthur and Elgie (Miller) Stevens. His family later moved to Bristol, NH, and then to Whitefield, NH, when Clayton was still young. After high school, he entered the U.S. Army Air Corps and served for four years during World War II. In 1944, he was married to Jane Fuller.

After his military service, Clayton lived in New Haven, Conn., and worked for thirty years for the City of New Haven as the supervisor of their printing department. He retired in 1982, and moved to Canaan.

He leaves behind his wife of more than 70 years, Jane (Fuller) Stevens of Canaan; as well as many nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by a brother, Kenneth.

All services will be private. Interment will be in the Alice Hunt Cemetery in Canaan. Expressions of sympathy may be made to a charity of one's choice.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements in NH are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman
Funeral Home in Colebrook.

I wondered what ever happened to them lived across the street from "Red" and Jane in Woddbridge, Ct. I always enjoyed their company. I am so glad they were able to enjoy each other for so long.
