

Clifton L. Demeritt Jr.

December 6, 1948 - January 2, 2019

ERROL — Clifton L. Demeritt, Jr., 70, of Errol, passed away on Wednesday, Jan. 2, 2019, at his home.

He was born on Dec. 6, 1948, in Amesbury, Mass., a son to Clifton and Carlene (Buttrick) Demeritt, Sr. Cliff grew up in East Hampstead, NH, and was a 1968 graduate of Pinkerton Academy.

A carpenter by trade, Cliff worked for many years at The Balsams and later worked for 20 years for the NH Dept. of Transportation on the Errol crew. He was a true outdoorsman who loved to hunt and fish, and being a bit of a creature of habit, he could usually be found fishing the same spots at the same time each year. He also enjoyed gold prospecting.

He is survived by his mother, Carlene Demeritt of East Hampstead, NH, and his brother, Norman Demeritt of Hillsborough, NH.

There are no public calling hours or services scheduled.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

“ I have known Cliff for over 30 years and probably closer to 35. A quit man that liked to be alone. As you got his trust he would visit with you. Spent quite a bit of time talking hunting, fishing, life in general and most of all guns and gun collecting. At times it was over a whiskey on the rocks. Sorry to see the cabin on the hill empty.
