

Daniel P. Flaherty

June 28, 1956 - January 3, 2013

ERROL, NH—Mr. Daniel P. Flaherty, 56, of Errol, NH, died unexpectedly at the Upper Connecticut Valley Hospital in Colebrook, NH, on Thursday morning, Jan. 3, 2013.

He was born on June 28, 1956, in Woburn, Mass., a son to Richard and Adeline (BenDavid) Flaherty. He was raised and educated in Tewksbury, Mass., and graduated from Tewksbury High School in 1975.

Daniel's career was spent as a talented and professional wood flooring contractor and artist. His intricate designs of inlaid floors, and his passion for perfection, are seen in many places, including Symphony Hall in Boston.

He was an avid hunter and fisherman, and his enjoyment of those pastimes brought his family to the north country five years ago. Daniel was a faithful member of the Jehovahs' Witnesses, and was active in the Kingdom Hall until illness prevented his regular participation. He cherished any time that he was able to spend with his grandchildren, and he will be remembered by his family as the "best Dad." He was a very loving husband and was always caring for others before caring for himself.

Daniel leaves behind his wife of 38 years, Kimberly (Drury) Flaherty of Errol; his mother, Adeline Winchester and husband Rick of Tewksbury, Mass.; his daughter, Deana Owen and husband Scottie of Pittsburg; his son, Kristopher Flaherty of Errol; five grandchildren, Mariah Edmonds, Victor and Jayda Laboy, and Elizabeth and Abigail Flaherty; two brothers, Kevin and David Flaherty of Tewksbury; two sisters, Susan Flaherty of Tewksbury and Diane Cahill and husband Scott of Tewksbury; three nieces, Kayla, Ellison and Megan; three nephews, Philip, Michael, and Tyler; his favorite uncle, "Uncle Eddie;" as well as his beloved canine companion, Sonny.

He is preceded in death by his father, Richard Flaherty.

Memorial calling hours will be held on Saturday, Jan. 12, 2013, from 3-5 p.m. at the Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook. Other services will be private and at the convenience of the family.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Mr. Flaherty may be made to Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home, 103 Main St., Colebrook, NH 03576 to help the family with final expenses.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home, Colebrook, NH.

“ Danny,

*We never saw much of each other as adults, your mother being my first cousin let me be a big part of your life as an infant. I was a teenager when you were born and loved babies, your mother knew this and let me help with you from time to time. I know from Uncle Eddie how talented you were as a hardwood floor installer, and your artistic talent. I cannot believe you are gone and wish that our family was not so spread out and that we saw more of each other through the years. There are a lot of us some we have never even met, but our hearts go out to our family at times like this. I know you were very ill and now I hope that you rest in peace. Love always,

“ Dan just want to say you will be missed so much. You are a awesome man, out going and very strong. You held as much as you could and never wanted anyone to worry and that you was always ok. You are in a better place and not suffering in pain god will take care of you. Kim I love you so much and feel for you, your kids and their kids.....its a hard thing and everyone will get through it sadley but will. Will remember all the good times and hard times as well and being there and i will always be there for you, as well as for your family. Never wanted this day to come as well as i know none wanted to have this happen. Prayers are with you everyday and just know hes looking down and knows that everyone will be strong and hes watching over everyone! Me, Nessa, Steve and mom and dad are always here for you as well as with you and will be by your side. I love you so much xoxoxoxoxo##imported-begin##Whitney Corcoran & Jennessa Gaston##imported-end##

“ My dearest Kim,

My heart breaks for you. I know how hard it will be for you to continue on without Danny, but I also know that with Jehovah's help you will be able to. Hang in there Kim you are strong. My love and prayers go out to you and your children Deana and Chris, and thier children. You all have lost a wonderful husband, father, and grandfather. My hope is that you all are able to continue on into the new system and are all there to welcome him back.

Love you all so much

“ Kim, I was very sad to hear of your great lost. Our love goes out to you and your family. You and Dan have always been close to me in my heart. Even now I can hear the warmth of your voice, and the Christian love within your heart. Now is the time when we need to rely on our love, and trust in Jehovah. (1 Corinthians 2:9) But just as it is written: “Eye has not seen and ear has not heard, neither have there been conceived in the heart of man the things that God has prepared for those who love him”. In the very near future, you and Dan will be able to share all those things that Jehovah has prepared for those who love him! No matter what, always draw close to our Father Jehovah; call out to him in prayer. You can be confident that Jehovah will help you to endure, and comfort you and the entire family. Our love goes out to you and the Family, may the spirit of Jehovah be with you to strengthen you always. Julius and Georgia###imported-begin##Julius and Georgia Atkins###imported-end##

“ I take comfort in knowing I will see Danny again, without the curse of sin and death. He was a patient teacher, and loving, funny, and resourceful friend. He has finished the race, and we can but endure and remain faithful until we see him again. I share in all of your grief, and hope.

Love

“ Dear Kim and Flaherty Family,
Please be assured of our love and deep sorrow having heard of your loss. We all have our struggles in life and Dan had his...but he loved Jehovah. He shared that with me many times when we spoke and he looked forward to the time when life would not be such a struggle. Now he can rest until he hears that commanding call..."Dan come out."

Stay at Jehovah's table.

“ We are so very sorry for the pain that all of Danny's family must feel with him no longer there, to love and comfort and laugh with. Death is for sure a terrible enemy of us all, and we long to see it defeated, once and for all.

We have many great and funny memories of our dear friend, and look forward to making many more one day, in the meantime, we send our heartfelt sympathy and love to all of his family.

“ To all whom are signing my guestbook, this month on January the 18th would have marked the best 38 years of my life. My husband, my best friend, and for those who knew me, knew that Dan was my stabilizer, anchor and the most patient partner that anyone could have. I can't express enough how much he will be missed not only by me but by all family and friends we've had. I loved him so much and this is going to be a tough one but with all your messages and prayers and knowing Dan fought so hard to remmain with us we can all look forward to seeing him someday. Thanks to everyone, love to you all..Kim###imported-begin##Kimberly Flaherty###imported-end##
