

Danny A. Davis Sr.

July 18, 1950 - June 26, 2024

CLARKSVILLE – Danny A. Davis, Sr., 73, passed away suddenly and unexpectedly at his home on Wednesday morning, June 26, 2024.

Danny was born on July 18, 1950, in Windsor, Vt., a son to the late Cecil and Helen (Osgood) Davis.

He grew up in Plainfield, N.H., and lived there for 49 years. Danny married Donna Bandy on May 28, 1971. They honeymooned in Pittsburg, and vowed to move there someday. To fulfill that dream, they moved to Clarksville in 1998.

Danny was a machine operator for Joy Industries and later Sullivan Machinery. He was also truck driver for the Town of Plainfield and Don MacLeay Construction.

Danny was an active volunteer firefighter on the Plainfield volunteer fire department, retiring from there in 1996. After moving to the north country, Danny continued to work at Ethan Allen and The Balsams, and he also driving for Tri-County shuttle service. He enjoyed motorcycle riding, fishing, woodworking, watching nature and spending time with his family.

He is survived by his wife of 53 years, Donna; a son, Danny Jr., (Valerie); his daughter Debbie (Keith); two grandsons, Ben Davis and Morgan Monmaney; and a sister, Nancy.

Danny is predeceased by two sisters, Josephine and Barbara, and a brother, Bruce.

Per his specific request, there are no public calling hours or services planned. Donna wishes to receive no sympathy cards.

The family would like to extend a huge thank you to the 45th Parallel first responders for their help.

Memorial donations may be made in Danny's name to the 45th Parallel EMS, 46 Ramsey Rd., Colebrook, NH 03576; or to Plainfield Fire Department, 1260 N.H. Route 12-A, Plainfield, NH 03781.
