

Darline Ludwick

July 7, 1970 - January 3, 2025

CLARKSVILLE – Darline Ann-Marie Ludwick, 54, of Clarksville passed away Friday, Jan. 3, 2025, in the comfort of her own home.

Darline was born on July 7, 1970, in Portsmouth, N.H., the youngest of four children to Joseph and Marythelma (Gagnon) Ludwick. She graduated from Portsmouth High School, but more recently had spent time taking classes at Southern New Hampshire University as an English major.

After raising her babies, “Momma” spent her days reading, writing, and painting. She even published two small children’s books. She enjoyed her time spent with her family outdoors.

Darline is predeceased by her parents Joseph and Marythelma Ludwick of Portsmouth, and two children, Holly-Ryan Anna of Clarksville and Charlotte Keezer of Columbia, Kentucky. She is survived by the love of her life, Michael Keezer, her children Tinora and Aczariah Ludwick, Tayton and Courtney Keezer; her grandchildren, Esmee Rancloes and Camilia Ford; her siblings Nadine, Justine, and Bill; and many very loved nieces, nephews, and cousins. Not to be forgotten are her countless “adopted” children.

There will be no services or calling hours at this time, but the family does request that in honor of Darline, always overuse the words “I love you,” because tomorrow is never promised.

Condolences may be offered on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Arrangements have been entrusted to the care of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook.

“ I grew up with Darline and she was one of the most purely kind and sweet children I ever knew. We didn't spend much time together after grade school but she remained that sweet person I always knew. She was genuine and knew herself from an early age. It was nice to reconnect a bit in the last couple years, I'm glad for that. My deepest condolences to her family and children.
