

Debra Cameron

October 25, 1954 - May 31, 2012

MAGALLOWAY PLANTATION, ME—Debra Cameron, 57, of Magalloway Plantation, Me., passed away on Thursday morning, May 31, 2012, at the Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center in Lebanon, NH, after a brief and courageous battle against leukemia.

She was born in Concord, NH, on October 25, 1954, a daughter to the late Melvin M. and M. Jane (Creighton) MacKinnon. Debbie grew up in Lebanon, NH, and was a 1972 graduate of Lebanon High School. She moved to Magalloway Plantation, Me., in 1979.

In the mid-1980s, and then for many years, Debbie worked behind the front desk at The Balsams, and she was a familiar voice and face to thousands of resort guests over the years. She made countless friends there, and she was known for her infectious laughter. There was never a day when she didn't want to go to work. Debbie also loved to travel and see new places, and she cherished all her grandchildren. Just talking about them would make her break into a huge smile.

She enjoyed the fall colors of New England foliage, and she had many favorite TV shows; she also enjoyed doing word puzzles and playing games on her computer. She was known for her Christmas candies, her love of springer spaniel dogs, and her lack of a green thumb. It has been noted that she couldn't even keep a cactus alive. Debbie enjoyed family gatherings, especially a good old-fashioned pig roast, and she enjoyed taking her grandchildren to the Weathervane restaurant in Lebanon, and the Chickadee restaurant in Turner, Me.

Debbie leaves behind her husband, Terry Cameron of Colebrook; her two daughters, Chandra Cameron of Bath, Me., and Amanda Cameron of Madison, Ohio; her son Ewen Cameron of Magalloway Plantation; her brother Douglas MacKinnon and wife Helen of Meredith, NH; her four grandchildren Zachary Maney, Tyler Cameron, George Snowdon, Jr., and Alyssa Cameron; as well as several nieces and nephews.

At her specific request, there are no public calling hours. Debbie will be laid to rest in a private ceremony at the Valley Cemetery in Lebanon, NH, with her parents. A Celebration of Life and pig roast will be held for all friends and family at the Lizotte farm on Rt. 26 in Errol, NH, on Saturday, June 16, 2012, at 11 a.m. Directional signs will be posted.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Debbie may be made to the Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home, 103 Main Street, Colebrook, NH 03576, to assist the family with funeral expenses.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home, Colebrook, NH.

“ My sincere condolences for your loss. I remember Debbie as the hard-working, younger sister of one of my oldest friends and as part of the family with which my family was closest while growing up. Debbie called my mother for advice over the years. I always thought that was touching for both of them. I am sure Debbie was a rock for her children and grand-children, who will miss her greatly. I offer my sincereest sympathyies. imported-begin Don Lowry imported-end

“ Many,Many memories - if only the four walls in reservations could talk - what a best seller we would have!! Debbie will always be remembered - a personality that no one can forget. The keeper of our candy jar (remember Linda always brought our favorite - chocolate!) and Debbie always hid the fudge on me. We struggled through our SMS training but was able to pull it off. Debbie loved her family and proudly displayed new pictures of the grandchildren on her computer desk top. We extend our deepest sympathy to Debbie's family as they handle this great loss.###imported-begin###Jerry & Paulette###imported-end###
