Bruce spent much of his life as an auto-body technician before moving to the north country of NH in the early 1970s. Locally, he was known as a tinkerer and someone who could get your old lawnmower running again. He was a quiet man, who enjoyed his little spot above the waters of Lake Francis.

He is predeceased by all his siblings, his twin sister Dolly Vance, sister Carolyn Robbins and brothers Robert, Ronald and Albert Walker. The third triplet predeceased him at birth.

“ To my Uncle Bruce, we were only 5 yrs apart but grew up together with our Beloved Dorothy (Dolly) Walker your twin sister. I have all the great memories we made together the laughs and yes even the trouble we got into. You would do anything for any body, didn't ask for anything in return. You life here on this planet was not always easy but, thanks for my great childhood, may you finally be resting in peace with your sister, and other siblings. See you when I get there...
