“ Hey Nana, I haven't talked too you in a year. I wanted to apologize for that. I have had a lot of things going lately. I wish I really wish I had you here to help me with the problems. Your a very great problem solver. With all the problems that i have had to deal with it's been hard without you. I really loved everything that you have ever done for me, i really do mean that. I really do miss you a lot. Your literally my EVERYTHING. I can't ever do anything without thinking of you. Your the only role model that I could ever look up too when I was a little kid. I will always consider you as my favorite adult out there. I know that i may not be able too pick up the phone to talk too you right now, but i will always talk too you in my head just like I normally would if i were too talk to you on the phone. I really miss our conversations and our long car rides. If i had 1 wish right now for anything, it would be too bring you back. I Love you that much and i forever and always will no matter what. I really can't thank you enough for everything that you have ever done for me. I remember being told by you when i was a child that you were the first one to hold me out of you and mom. I am so glad to be your granddaughter i couldn't ever ask for anything better to be for you. If i could've had the chance too give you one hug right now, i would gladly take that chance. I really do miss your hugs and kisses on the cheek, they were the best things to ever get from a Nana like you. i wanted to let you know that i am 17 years old now. I have grown up alot since you have been passed. I have grown up to be a very great young lady like you told me that you wanted me to be. I am very responsible for a 17 year old like me. I am doing good in school, and I have been taking really good care of myself. I have made a lot of good choices the age that i am now. I can't wait too graduate from high school and show you how capable of it that i was. I have other great news to tell you Nana, i have found a boy that i really love and i have been with him for 1 month now, and if you were wondering what his name is, it's Kris. I know what you would tell me, you would tell me: make sure he treats you right or i will have to kick his little butt. Trust me nana he treats me like the best more than you could ever imagine. I really wish that you were here to meet him. He is the best boyfriend that i could ever get. I just wanted to tell you that i found someone that makes me very happy. I miss you a lot Nana, i really wish you were here in person so i could tell you all these things instead of over the internet. But at least you still get to know how i am doing, am i right?. Well anyways, i will let you go for right now so you can get some rest and so can't i. It was really great talking too you and too catch up on things. I promise you that i will behave and be a good teenager like you would want me too be. I can't wait too talk to you again. I promise that i will check back with you in a couple day's. I Love you sooooo much. From: Hay hay Graves 5/29/2021 Ps. your house was the best to be at.

“ I will never forget our time. Although it's been a few years, I still remember our night of 32oz Margaritas' and we couldn't find the car and I reported it stolen only to have the officer spot it. 😂

I don't believe I've ever laughed that hard since. Sending Blessings and strength to your family.

Auntie, it's all still a complete blur. I don't understand. My heart aches so much. These past few days have been so tough and next week I have to say my final goodbyes.. I'll see you on the other side. I hate seeing your name next to R.I.P or the words "funeral services", it hurts so much. I still keep looking at your pictures. Every time I close my eyes, all I can picture is your face. Or how you would be sitting in your recliner when I'd stop over to visit. I picture all the carnivals you took me to when I was younger. All the places you lived and how close you always lived to mom. You've been there for me in so many ways. I was beyond blessed to have you as my God Mother! I couldn't thank you enough and words can't express how much I already miss you. You mean everything to me. You'll always be my angel. Promise to always watch over me, keep me in line, and send that handsome fella I've been searching for my way. I love you!!! <3
