

Doris K. Jackson

March 28, 1921 - December 17, 2019

WEST STEWARTSTOWN — Doris K. Jackson, 98, of Lemington, Vt., passed away peacefully at the Coös County Nursing Hospital on Tuesday, Dec. 17, 2019.

She was born on March 28, 1921, in Pottstown, Penn., a daughter to the late Walter G. and Una (Little) Klebe. At a very young age, her family moved to Colebrook and they worked the Diamond Pond Farm with the Coleman family for many years.

Doris was a wonderful homemaker for her family. She was a gifted seamstress and gardener and will be remembered as an amazing cook, famous for the pickles that she would make from her garden's bounty. For a few years, after the death of her first husband, Doris was a local telephone operator. She enjoyed annual trips to New Brunswick with her husband, Carl, and she was a member of the Catholic Women's Club in Colebrook.

She is survived by her nieces and nephews; and predeceased by her first husband, Conrad Baker, her second husband, Carl Jackson, and all her siblings, Jesse Klebe, Leonard Klebe, Robert Klebe, Curtis Klebe, and Ruth Solomon.

There are no public calling hours. A graveside interment service will take place in the spring in the South Canaan Cemetery of which notice will be given.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Doris may be made to the North American Martyrs' Parish, for the benefit of St. Brendan's Church, 55 Pleasant St., Colebrook, NH 03576.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Arrangements are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home, Colebrook, NH.

“ Our deepest condolences, Lisa and family.
We will greatly miss her, Bob especially. She became a second Mom to him, over the years. She is at peace, and pain-free, now. Fly with the angels, Doris.
