

Earline R. Shattuck

June 22, 1955 - January 26, 2023

Earline R. Shattuck, 67, formerly a long-time resident of Barre, Vt., passed away peacefully with loved ones by her side on Thursday, Jan. 26, 2023, in Stewartstown, N.H.

Born in Hartford, Conn., on June 22, 1955, to Robert and Mary (Skrabut) Shattuck, she was the youngest of four girls. After a brief time in Derby, Vt., the Shattuck family moved to Barre in 1962 where Earline spent the rest of her childhood and later started her family. She graduated from Spaulding High School in 1973 and began her career in the field of nursing where she developed a passion for helping others.

Soon after graduating she married James Ayer in 1975. They spent sixteen years together and had two daughters. In 1992, she married Brian Ashley, also of Barre. They spent their years together travelling the country, making sure never to be too far from a NASCAR track, and eventually settled in Arizona. Earline later made her way back to New England where she spent her more recent years enjoying life with her family, her grandchildren and her friends, all who she loved very much.

She is survived by her daughters, Jaime (Penny) Grandfield of Barre, Vt., and Tiffany (Matt) Lessard of East Hampton, Conn; her grandchildren, Michael, Felicia, Payton, Ella and Matthew; great grandchildren, Jordan and Sage (arriving in April 2023); her sisters Denise (Scott) Record of Troy, N.H., and Bobbi (Dave) Nichols of Warren, Vt. Other survivors include her nieces whom she loved like daughters, Crystal and Nicole, Molly and Tara, Dawn and Denise.

She is preceded in death by her parents, her previous husband Brian, and her eldest sister, Sheila (Ross) Clark of Glover, Vt.

Earline will be missed dearly by those that loved her. Her family is planning a celebration of her life later this year.

“ Earline was a good friend while we were pre-teens. We often hung at each other's houses and walked downtown and then home together. She always had a positive attitude and I was looking forward to seeing her at our 50th reunion. Earline, you will be missed. RIP. Shelly Fisher
