“ I met the Pingrees when they moved to Canaan. Ned was a happy guy and glad to meet the locals. He was a very talented person and could make and or fix most everything. My deepest sympathies to his family.

“ Lynn, my heart goes out to you and the family who have watched Ned's courage as he battled this terrible disease. I will never forget his great cooking, especially the best macaroni and cheese which will never be beaten by anyone. So glad Connie and I got to see him at Goldenrods this summer. He will be missed. Love you,

Dear Lynn our thoughts & prayers are with you & the family. We were so lucky to have you & Ned as neighbors in Florida for many years. That man taught me a lot, carpentry, plumbing techniques and especially his cooking specialties. The best! So happy we got to spend some time this summer with you both. He will be missed by many. Love you xoxo Jim & Diane
