

Elenore L. Murphy

May 2, 1933 - July 5, 2010

ORANGE CITY, FL—Mrs. Elenore L. Murphy, 77, of Orange City, Fl., died peacefully at home with her family by her side on Monday, July 5, 2010, after a brief struggle with cancer.

Born in Camden, NJ, on May 2, 1933, she lived in Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont until 1975 when she moved to Orange City, Fl.

Ellie was active in the Ladies' Evening Circle with the United Methodist Church. She was a huge supporter of Operation Christmas Child, shopping year-round to put together 12 shoeboxes a year for needy children around the world.

She enjoyed gardening, was an excellent cook, and adored her children and grandchildren. She was the widow of Clarence Murphy who died in 1999.

Ellie is survived by her two daughters, Patricia (Emerson) Stidd and husband, Kenneth, of Farmington, NH, and Dolly (Emerson) Dubravsky and husband Edward of York, Me.; five grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; and 4 great-great grandchildren; and her sister, Helen Ogletree of Orange City, Fl.

A graveside memorial service at the Colebrook Village Cemetery in Colebrook, NH, will be held on Saturday, July 31, 2010, at 1:00 p.m., with The Rev. Rick Boyden officiating.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Mrs. Murphy may be made to the Samaritan's Purse, P.O. Box 3000, Boone, NC 28607.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Local funeral arrangements are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home, Colebrook, NH.

Tribute Wall

“ To my cousins Tricia and Dolly, my heartfelt condolences for your loss. I am crushed, she left us way too soon. I loved your Mom dearly, my Aunt El, my favorite Aunt. Sending you love, hugs, and peace at this difficult time. Barb##imported-begin##Barbara J. Ellis (Hill)##imported-end##
