“ Elizabeth was a loving wife and mother, and despite the many difficulties she dealt with during her lifetime, she continued to view the world through rose-colored glasses.

Elizabeth also had a colorful personality, and this was clearly reflected in the letters she wrote and in the way she decorated our home.

Elizabeth loved flowers of all kinds, and as anyone familiar with "Lizzie" could tell you, she was no shrinking violet. Occassionally she would say that she wanted a rose-covered casket for her funeral, and Thanks be to God that He provided the resources to fulfill her request.

Finally, by all appearances, Elizabeth passed into Eternity peacefully, and until we meet again, she will be missed.
