“ I am very sorry for your loss.

Elizabeth was my dear friend and a big part of my life since March 1999 town meeting. I was new in town and I noticed her looking around, she told me she couldn't see, so we decided to sit together.

Since then we enjoyed visiting and enjoyed each others company. We traveled many places together over the years. Elizabeth's piano playing talent entertained many elderly at Colby Commons on special occasions ,and I enjoyed singing with her. She shared family stories, who's who in relatives and history in her life and growing up in Pittsburg. As she aged in the nursing home and was able to do less and less we talked about those memories of family that brought comfort and peace and closure. When I left her Dec.22 at 3 PM she was sleeping peacefully. I will miss my friend.
