

Gerald A. Blondeau

December 20, 1937 - November 7, 2012

COLEBROOK, NH—Mr. Gerald “Gerry” A. Blondeau, 74, of Colebrook, NH, and formerly of Bloomfield, Vt., passed away peacefully at the Upper Connecticut Valley Hospital in Colebrook on Wednesday evening, Nov. 7, 2012.

He was born in Manchester, NH, on Dec. 20, 1937, the son of Paul Aime and Aurore (Beaudoin) Blondeau. He was a veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps.

Gerry had five children: Paulette, Michelle, Annette (deceased), Gerald, and Danielle. He also knew many people and had many special friends, including Allen and Pam Perkins.

For 30 years, Gerry was a follower of Native American culture and philosophy.

He wanted to thank all of his friends throughout his life that led him to many good hobbies like fishing, hunting, and working with wood. Gerry’s hope was that he would be more in charge of his next life.

Gerry will be remembered for his kindness and vast knowledge, which he shared with everyone. He was a friendly person who would help anyone. He will be greatly missed, but his memory will live on.

At his specific request, there will be no public calling hours. A private family service will occur at a later date.

Expressions of sympathy can be made in honor of Gerald's memory to the Northwoods Home Health & Hospice, 278 Main Street, Lancaster, NH 03584; or 120 Main Street, Suite 5, Colebrook, NH 03576.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home, Colebrook, NH.
