“ Keenan and Kerwin,
Our deepest sympathy to you and your families on your loss.
You probably don't remember me, but I am Juanie's cousin that lived in the big house by the road to the ball fields and the school when my husband was in Vietnam.
Our daughter, Brooke, was just a year old and she loved to go to you Mom's house. Sometimes she would care for her if I had an appointment to go to.
She made the greatest doughnuts, which I enjoyed on many occasions.
With wonderful memories,
