

Gerard St. Onge

July 14, 1963 - February 23, 2023

Gerard St. Onge, 59, of Goffstown, N.H., passed away unexpectedly on Thursday, Feb. 23, 2023, at the home of his father in Colebrook, N.H., after a day of doing what he loved, snowmobiling with his family in the north country.

He was born in Manchester, N.H., on July 14, 1963, a son to Donald D. and Gertrude I. (Dionne) St. Onge. He attended Goffstown High School.

At the time of his death, Gerry was employed by Skyline Roofing where he had worked for more than 30 years. He was a talented sheet metal fabricator and coppersmith.

He enjoyed snowmobiling, kayaking, fishing, bike riding, and spending time with his father in Colebrook.

Despite Gerry's challenging medical conditions, he maintained his strong work ethic, sense of humor and great kindness. He was always helping others.

Gerry leaves behind his father, Donald D. St. Onge of Colebrook; three brothers, Donald R. St. Onge of Henniker, N.H., Maurice R. (wife Lisa M.) St. Onge and Paul R. (wife Corinne) St. Onge of Goffstown; and his sister, Phyllis M. (husband John) Burt of Goffstown; his nephews/nieces, Paul St. Onge Jr., Julianne Taylor, Kevin Poulin, Kara Poulin, Melissa Woodard, and Elizabeth

St. Onge, and many cousins, aunts, uncles, and friends. He also leaves behind his goofy, equally determined rescue dog, aptly named 'Buddy.'

He is predeceased by his mother, Gertrude, in 2014.

There are no public calling hours. The family will celebrate Gerry's life at a later date.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Arrangements are entrusted to the care of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook.

“ I was thinking of Gerry the other day. I remember when we were alot younger, Gerry and my brother Rick were looking for a ride to the strip club in Peabody, MA but couldn’t find anyone to do it. So, I volunteered. We talked and laughed the whole way there and back. I did this quite a few times. Gerry was a fun loving soul. The time spent will be treasured always.

“ I remember my first meeting with baby Gerry on a visit to my home in N.H. although under 4 months old this curly headed boy was pedaling away in a baby walker . He was a strong baby and so lovable..when i attended his mothers funeral i found him to be still a strong man despite many illnesses and still very much a lovable , handsome man . May He rest in Peace .

“ You will be truly missed my little brother. As we get older, our lives change and we don't see each other as often as we should. I will miss our trips to the race tracks to see the supermodifieds! Memorial weekend, Labor Day weekend at the camp with Dad and the rest of our family and friends! May you rest in heaven with our mother.
