“ Precious Gladys. The time I knew her was way too short, but am so blessed to know her and her family. Every time I open my Bible with my 3-cord marker, I will think of her. Thank you for the beautiful memories.

“ I met Gladys when she moved to Errol. She never forgot our birthdays and my children received cards from her even after they left for college. She never forgot anyone. She was so proud of the beautiful home that she and John built and so very proud of her children and grandchildren always reminding us to pray for them, especially when her granddaughter was traveling. She never missed church or senior meals or any event in town and I would see her talking to everyone whether friend or stranger. She will be missed by everyone. I know she has entered the eternal life promised to her by her Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. May our Lord give all of you peace and strengthen the faith that she has passed on to you through her prayers.
