

Guylaine P. Savard

July 16, 1955 - December 14, 2018

WEST STEWARTSTOWN – Guylaine P. Savard, 63, passed away on Friday afternoon, Dec. 14, 2018, at the Upper Connecticut Valley Hospital in Colebrook after a long period of ill health.

She was born on July 16, 1955, in Coaticook, Quebec, and was raised in Canada until the 6th grade when her family emigrated to the U.S. She was a graduate of Canaan Memorial High School.

Guylaine was always known to be helping others, and was a hard worker. At one time, she owned and operated the Moose Grill in Bloomfield, and later worked at Tillotson Rubber Co. in Dixville. Many will remember her as a talented cook at First Run Entertainment in Colebrook. She loved to fish and spend time with her grandchildren. She enjoyed doing crossword puzzles and was an avid football fan, especially the Buffalo Bills. She was a very caring person with a good sense of humor.

She is survived by her son, Andrew Fadden of West Stewartstown; her brother, Robert Savard and wife Andrea of Littleton; a sister, Moe Hartshorn and husband Jim of Canaan; and two grandchildren.

There are no public calling hours or services.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

“ I've known Glen for a long time, many years. I remember when she adopted Andrew, that was one of her happiest days of her life. I worked with her for many years. She was a jokester, but a very kind, and generous woman. God bless the family, thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ To Guylaine's family, I am sad to hear of Guylaine passing. What a good time I had working with her for years. The hardest working woman that ever walked the planet that is for sure. She gave her heart and soul to make sure us girls had the best service possible to make the most money possible. She could take a joke and definitely pay back all in fun. All my love Mel

“ Working with Guylaine at Tilly there was never a dull moment! She would put fake poop in the bucket of gloves or maybe a play snake! I remember one time I gave her my water cup to fill and she dropped it and it brook she was very upset! Guylaine I said it only a cup! I love this girl ! it breaks my heart to know she had passed! My heart goes out to her family. This women has the biggest heart of anyone I have ever know! I will miss you Guylaine!
