

Harry E. Biron Sr.

March 5, 1940 - January 5, 2019

WEST STEWARTSTOWN – Harry E. Biron, Sr., 78, of West Stewartstown, passed away suddenly on Saturday morning, Jan. 5, 2019, at the Upper Connecticut Valley Hospital in Colebrook after being stricken at his home.

He was born in West Stewartstown on March 5, 1940, a son to the late Albert G. and Marie-Rose (Therrien) Biron. Harry attended school in Pittsburg and graduated from Pittsburg High School in 1958. He was a veteran of the U.S. Army, retiring from the reserve force in 1982 at the rank of staff sergeant.

For many years, Harry was a manager and superintendent at the Beecher Falls Division of Ethan Allen. He also worked with other family members for a period of time in the lumber industry. He was very active in his community, serving for a long time as selectman in Stewartstown. His family was most important to him, and Harry could always be seen at a local sporting events cheering on his family members. He enjoyed following all the New England professional sports teams, as well. Harry loved to travel, too, and Aruba was a favorite destination each year for him. He also enjoyed older cars and he loved to be out snowmobiling in the winter.

Harry leaves behind his wife of 59 years, Sally (Fauteux) Biron of West Stewartstown; four children, John Biron and partner Durand of San Francisco, Calif., Brian Biron and wife Maryse of Georgia, Vt., Elaine Biron and husband

Scooter of Kittery, Me., and Harry Biron Jr., and fiancée Carla Chapasko of South Yarmouth, Mass.; a daughter-in-law, Sally Belknap-Biron of Colebrook; two brothers, Donald Biron and wife Simone of Clarksville, and Albert Biron, Jr. of Connecticut; 7 grandchildren, Jessica Phelps, Alexandra O'Brien, Emily Biron, Olivia Biron, Harry Biron III, Michaella Biron and Chandler Biron; one great-grandson, Yuri O'Brien; as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by a son, Bruce A. Biron in 2017, and six siblings, Raymond, Bernard, Philip and Roland Biron, Pauline Carroll, and Lucille Biron.

Calling hours were on Tuesday, Jan. 8, 2019, from 4 to 7 p.m. at the Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook. A Mass of Christian Burial was held the next morning, Wednesday, Jan. 9, at 11 a.m. at St. Albert's Catholic Church with The Rev. Craig Cheney as celebrant. Interment with military honors will occur in the spring in St. Albert Cemetery, of which notice will be given.

“ I was sad to read the passing of Harry. We knew each other for years. Harry always spoke when he saw me. Then I moved down state. I did haul a few loads of lumber for him when he was in the business. He was always a good friend. My condolences to the Biron and Fauteux families.

“ Harry had an infectious way about him- a character that fit any situation he walked into. His personality made those that knew him happy. When he walked into a room you knew it immediately - that special laugh, consoling to those that needed it - realigning the situation when required. He was a spark plug for sure full of life, happy go lucky a doer get it done type of guy. We will miss him a void in the community that will be hard to fill for sure. I feel privileged to have worked along side of Harry Biron the man of many qualities an icon. I will always remember him calling me while at work and when I picked up the phone he would say “Walter is that you- are you awake yet “ always made me laugh.
