“ My Aunt Helen was a strong, determined, and fun person to be admired and loved. I have many fond memories of her and all of them involved the Goodale Clan at one function or another, laughing, always laughing. I am saddened that the last of my four wonderful aunts are gone now, as are my mother and father. I can only hope that they have met once again and are giving God something to laugh about also. I will always love and remember my Goodale aunts and uncles. They were an incredible family. After the second world war, I remember the family times when the cousins would be in the parlor, supposedly sleeping, while they played cards, sipped their drinks, smoked the cigarettes of the times and played cards, periodically hooting and laughing. Sometimes, they would sing along with the radio or jump up and dance to the big bands playing on the radio. I treasure the memories of those times and so many others. Cousins and spouses and kids, we must get together more and share our stories and do our own laughing. The time is short and the time does fly. My most sincere and loving condolences to my Uncles Bill and Cal and all the family members of Aunt Helen. She was special; she was loved; and she rests in peace. God smiles upon her. Maybe He even laughs with her. Hugs and Love, Janet##imported-begin##Janet Goodale Griffin-Smith##imported-end##

“ We will miss you Mom. You are the last of the 3 Muskateers and the last of four sisters. You didn't have an easy life but you made the best of it and spread alot of cheer and fun throughout your life. Thanks for being so good for my children and spreading your love for fun and laughter (and the Red Sox) to them.

Love,

Karen##imported-begin##Karen##imported-end##
