

Henry Duggan

May 4, 1926 - October 23, 2015

COLUMBIA – Henry Duggan, 89, of Columbia and formerly of Canterbury, NH, passed away at his daughter’s home in Columbia on Friday afternoon, Oct. 23, 2015.

Henry was born on May 4, 1926, in Cambridge, Mass., a son to the late John W. and Margaret H. (Howes) Duggan. He was raised in the Tewksbury and Wilmington area of Massachusetts, prior to settling in Canterbury, NH, where the family had enjoyed camping for many years.

Henry was a life-long diesel mechanic by trade, working for Filmore Industries for many years. He loved to race cars and his motorcycles, and he was still riding his motorcycle until the age of 87.

He is survived by his daughter, Sandra Green and husband Doug of Columbia, NH; a grandson, Cody Green of Canterbury; and several siblings: Catherine Reinhold and Mary Bammarito of Canterbury, William (Barbara) Duggan and Gene Duggan of Belmont, NH, Michael (Judy) Duggan of NH, Charles (Susan) Duggan of Wilmington, Mass., James (Beverly) Duggan, Joe Duggan, Thomas (Natalie) Duggan, and Grace Carroll, all of Massachusetts.

He is predeceased by his wife, Adella (Gaimovitch) Duggan in 1983, and two brothers, John and Frank “PeeWee” Duggan.

There are no public services scheduled.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Mr. Duggan may be made to a charity of one's choice.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Arrangements in NH are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook.

“ Hank was more than just a father in law to me. He was like a father to me since I lost my father when I was 21. He taught me so much over the years I've know him. To me he was one of the smartest men I've known. Over the last thirty years we've had a lot a fun together. I'll miss him greatly. Rest in peace my dear friend. You'll always will have a special place in my heart. ”

“ I grew up next to Hank and he was part of our family. He was so funny. My mother and most of the neighborhood mothers would warn us " do not say the swear word that Hank says". And some of us would squeal on each other saying " Jeanne said the swear that Hank says". We laugh about it today because every uses it. as an adjective.. I have lots of memories with Hank and Della. Thanks Hank for all the sweet or not so sweet (LOL) memories. Love from Jeanne Corson Delaney.

“ Hank was like a Dad to me when I was growing up. I was like a daughter to them before Sandy came and that is where she got her name. He was one of the funniest men in our neighborhood. Loved his racing cars and loved scaring the hell out of us kids. I haven't seen you in many years but will never forget you. Say hi to Della and rest in peace. Sandy (Brown) Testa.
