

Hervé Boire

September 18, 1921 - March 2, 2004

Mr. Hervé Boire, 82, of Colebrook, NH, passed away suddenly Tuesday, March 2, 2004, at the Upper Connecticut Valley Hospital.

Mr. Boire was born September 18, 1921, in Berlin, NH, son of the late Edy and Marie Rose (Hebert) Boire.

His first love was farming and he farmed during the day while working at the Stratford Mill in the evening. You would often find him in the woods or on his tractor. He also worked for Nash Equipment and Marchesseault Tree Farm roping Christmas trees. His many hobbies included reading, traveling, and spending time with his family and friends. He would often find time to frequent a favorite restaurant to share a meal with his many brothers and sisters. He will be remembered for his commitment to St. Brendan's Roman Catholic Church, walking to church even during the winter months. He was also a charter member of Our Lady of Grace Council #3028 Knights of Columbus, Columbia, NH, taking his first degree on April 1, 1947.

Mr. Boire is survived by his loving wife, Jeannine (Desautels) Boire of Colebrook, NH; his children: Jocelyn Boire and wife, Iola, of West Stewartstown, NH, Germain Boire and wife, Gaetane, of Colebrook, NH, Blandine Shallow of Jefferson, NH, Helen Phillips of Hampstead, NH, Norman Boire and wife, Alicia, of Colebrook, NH, Rita Gilbert and husband, Michael, of
