Mr. Irving "I.P." Frederick Pollard, Jr., 37, of Hardscrabble Road, Stewartstown, NH, passed away tragically in a woods accident behind his home on Friday, January 27, 2006. Irving was born June 20, 1968, in Lancaster, NH, son of the late Irving Frederick Pollard, Sr. and Julia Beatrice (Grover) Pollard. He was a member of the New Hampshire Maple Producers Association and the New Hampshire Timberland Association. He will be forever remembered as a loving husband, a loving and devoted father who was committed to spending time with his young son, Owen, and was a friend to all. Irving is survived by his loving wife and best friend, Heather Faye (Placey) Pollard of Stewartstown, NH; a son, Owen Frederick Pollard of Stewartstown, NH; three aunts, Irene, Roberta and Susie and their families; his in-laws, Donald and Lynne Placey; and two sister-in-laws, Darleen and Dawn and their families. “ Thinking of you and your mother today. Julia was a very special person who gave so much to my children and helped them be the people they are today, and offered support, love and patience to our family. Time softens the sharpness of the initial grief, but the tears still flow.
