

Jacob G. Weber

January 18, 1983 - October 22, 2013

COLEBROOK, NH — Jacob George Weber of Underhill, Vt., and formerly of Colebrook, NH, passed away at his home due to medical complications, early on Tuesday, Oct. 22, 2013.

He was born on Jan. 18, 1983, in St Johnsbury, Vt., to Howard Weber and Mary Beth (George) Kenison. He attended Colebrook Academy and NH Technical College in Laconia, majoring in Fire Science and Investigation.

He moved to Vermont upon marrying the love of his life, Alicia Davis, on Aug. 3, 2008, creating a home together with his four-legged friends Willow and Kiwi. As a couple, they enjoyed snowmobiling, biking and camping. Together they created Sky Acres, a small maple-sugaring operation.

Jake was a firefighter with the rank of Lieutenant at Barnstead Fire and Rescue in Barnstead, NH. He was a volunteer firefighter at Underhill/Jericho and Essex Rescue in Vermont. He began his fire service career in 2001 at the age of 18 as a volunteer at the Colebrook Fire Department. Jacob also worked part time for the Lancaster, NH, Police Dept.

Jacob was brought up in Colebrook. He was the ultimate people person; no matter where he went, he knew someone. As a young man he had many adventures with his two brothers, and was known for owning and working with Jack and Fred, his team of oxen, not ever attending school during the Lancaster Fair, which he loved. Jake went in every 4th of July parade in Colebrook starting at age 8, either alone, with his brothers, and for many years with his oxen. Jacob's favorite job as a young man was working at the Nugent gas station which he affectionately referred to as the "two-headed calf." Jacob began skiing at the Balsams Wilderness, and at age 6 was ranked a top-ten racer in NH. He became a member of the Ski Patrol there, working with his Uncle Bob (when not skiing off the trail with his friends and brothers). Jake was also a member of the Colebrook Academy Key Club, and was the Lt. Gov. for his district. Jacob played little league baseball and PALS Hockey. His true passion was for helping others, and he therefore helped establish the Explorer program at the Colebrook Fire Dept. until age 18, when he could officially become a member.

Jacob's life-long dream was fulfilled when he graduated in Fire Science and became a full-time professional firefighter for Barnstead Fire and Rescue. Jacob's life was completed when he met and married Alicia, whom he loved so dearly. They shared many things, but most important was their commitment and devotion to each other.

He is survived by his wife Alicia (Davis) Weber of Underhill, Vt.; his father, Howard Weber and wife Kate of Gulf Breeze, Fla.; his mother Mary Beth Kenison and husband Toby of Groveton NH; his older brother, Nicholas Weber, wife Bianca and their children, Kael and Bristol Weber of Gilmanton, NH; his twin brother, Capt. Samuel Weber of Dover, NH, currently serving in Afghanistan; his step-brother Toby W. Kenison of Groveton, NH; and his grandmother, Suzanne Weber, of Colebrook. Jake is also survived by beloved uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews and cousins. He also leaves behind friends and loved ones too numerous to count.

Jake is predeceased by his grandparents Howard C. Weber, Donald and Helen George, and an infant cousin, Charles Weber.

Calling hours will be on Saturday, Oct. 26, 2013, from 2-4 & 6-8 p.m. at the Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook, NH. A funeral service will be held on Sunday, Oct. 27, at 2 p.m. at the Colebrook School gymnasium with The Reverend Rebecca Larson and Pastor Mike Kooy co-officiating.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Jake can be made to the Colebrook Academy Key Club, c/o Colebrook Academy, 13 Academy St., Colebrook, NH, 03576; or to the Granite State Fire Service Support Team, c/o Deputy Chief Mark Klose, 55 Constitution Dr., Bedford, NH 03110.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home, Colebrook, NH.

“ Dear Mary Beth, Howie, Nick, Sam & family:
I am so deeply sorry to hear of Jake's passing. My memories of him are as a young whippersnapper at the ski lodge, always with a glint of mischief in his eye, always extending a kind smile and generous hand to those who needed help. He has touched so many lives and I'm glad you that you have one another to lean on, especially in those quiet moments. Sending heartfelt prayers and may grace and peace settle upon you all.##imported-begin##Nancy Washburn (Caggiula)##imported-end##

“ Alicia and all Jake's family, friends. What a shock to here this news upon my return from my trip abroad. I feel so shocked and saddened. I wish I could have been here to share this time with you in some small way. I feel blessed to have spent time with Jake at Clara's wedding when I hear him say that even if his life turned out to be short, he was going to enjoy every moment of it.
He was one very cool, very wise, very caring young man. It was a privilege to have known him, even so briefly. I see smiling down upon all of you with that twinkle in his eye and that great big grin. You are all in my thoughts and I send my love to all of you.##imported-begin##Patricia Lavery##imported-end##

“ Dear Alicia, from the bottom of my heart, I offer you sympathy, love and the courage to go on. I hope you can eventually gain some measure of peace from all of the support and out pouring of love from everyone. I will never forget the weekend I was in Colebrook and Jake was going through the turmoil of how to ask you to marry him. I was witness to some of the funniest and heartfelt interactions between Jake and his friends as he came to terms with this emotional dilemma. It gave me a small window into his beautiful soul; and I will never foget him. Please know you and your families and friends are in my prayers as you go through this most difficult time. “ To Mary-Beth and all of Jake's family.
The loss of Jake really hits hard in my home because I not only remember him and Sam as babies but I watched him grow up, I sold him his calves for oxen, and I admired his career as a firefighter. It seems like God is taking our finest, first, and they will greet us when we get there, someday. I have been through this before and every time it happens to someone else, I say, why them, why now? We offer sincere prayers for healing. It takes forever.

“ Seems not that long ago I was carrying Jake on one hip and Sam on the other at Mom's. How honored Dad was when they named their goat after him. I watched Jake grow from a mischievous little boy to a mischievous young man who wanted nothing more than to help his fellow man. He was Ben's hero, as a kid, because he was a firefighter. He always took time out to talk to him and encourage him. Ben has decided to follow that dream and had always hoped that he could be on the same department as Jake someday.
