

James Stuart Walker

June 8, 1917 - September 13, 2009

CLARKSVILLE, NH -- Mr. James Stuart Walker, 92, of Clarksville, NH, and formerly of Massachusetts, passed away on Sunday, September 13, 2009, at the Pendleton Nursing Home in Mystic, Conn., with his loving family by his side.

Jim was born in Dorchester, Mass., on June 8, 1917, a son of the late James Walker and Katherine (MacFarlane) Walker. He was a veteran of the U.S. Army who served with honor during World War II, and he also received the Bronze Star for bravery.

Following his military service, he was employed by the Boston Fire Department, and then he was employed for 30 years with General Motors as an instructor. Jim retired with his wife, Regina, to Clarksville where he was an avid outdoorsman.

Jim was a lifetime member of the N.R.A. and Kiwanis, and he was active in many political causes.

Mr. Walker leaves behind his wife of 69 years, Regina Walker of Clarksville; a daughter, Regina Marsh and husband Wayne, of Charlestown, R.I.; a son, James A. Walker and wife, Kirsti of Uxbridge, Mass.; a sister, Katherine Branco of New Bedford, Mass.; five grandchildren; and many life-long friends.

At the request of the family all services will be private.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of James may be made to the National Rifle Association, Processing Center, P.O. Box 420648, Palm Coast, FL 32142-0648.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.
