

Janice W. Davis

April 4, 1929 - December 31, 2004

Mrs. Janice W. Davis, 75, of Route 26, Colebrook, NH, passed away suddenly early Friday morning, December 31, 2004, at the Upper Connecticut Valley Hospital. Mrs. Davis was born at the Pioneer Farm in Columbia, NH, on April 4, 1929, daughter of the late Lew and Gladys (Clark) Wallace. She graduated from Colebrook Academy, Class of 1947, and received a Bachelor's Degree in Home Economics from Nasson College. She married Perley E. Davis on October 21, 1951, and loved caring for her family as a homemaker. She loved gardening and tending to her flowers. She enjoyed making Christmas wreaths and flower arrangements for family and friends. She also enjoyed bird watching, especially blue birds. Mrs. Davis was Past Worthy Matron of Eureka Chapter #2 O.E.S. of Colebrook, and Past Grand Organist of the Grand Chapter of New Hampshire O.E.S. She will be remembered as a loving wife, mother and grandmother, and was especially proud of her four granddaughters. Mrs. Davis is survived by her husband of 53 years, Perley E. Davis of Colebrook, NH; a daughter, Julie Colby and husband, David, of Colebrook, NH; a son, Tim Davis and partner, Tony, of Washington, D.C.; two sisters, Beth Young of Columbia, NH, and Sis Dugas of Barnstable, MA; four granddaughters, Melissa Boire, Jacie Colby, Hannah Colby and Tia McDonald-Davis; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. Mrs. Davis is preceded in death by her son, Peter Davis in 1959, a brother, Lew Wallace, Jr., and a sister, Lone Young.
