

JoAnne F. Jones

May 5, 1939 - September 13, 2008

BEECHER FALLS, VERMONT – Mrs. JoAnne F. Jones, 69, of Beecher Falls, Vt., and formerly of Massachusetts and Arizona, passed away early Saturday morning, September 13, 2008, at her home in Beecher Falls surrounded by members of her loving family.

Mrs. Jones was born May 5, 1939, in Somerville, Mass., a daughter of the late Robert Squeglia and Ottobrina “Betty” (D’Antilio) Squeglia.

She was educated in Massachusetts and married James “Jim” Jones on April 1, 1957. After residing in Massachusetts for many years, they then relocated to Arizona to live for 35 years. Two years ago, they moved to the North Country, where JoAnne loved the winter weather.

A devoted wife, mother, sister and grandmother, JoAnne was also known for her love of music and her singing voice. Although she loved all kinds of music, she was particularly fond of country-western. She also enjoyed arts and crafts and was an accomplished artist. She especially enjoyed decorating for the holidays and making homemade Christmas decorations. JoAnne loved to play games of all kinds, and she was proud of her Italian heritage that also came through in her cooking. She will be dearly missed by all those who knew and loved her.

Mrs. Jones is survived by her loving husband of 51 years, James "Jim" Jones, of Beecher Falls, Vt.; five children, Denise McCarthy and husband, Bill, of Nottingham, NH, James Jones, Jr. and wife Lisa of Billerica, Mass., Terri Hurley and husband, Dennis Bailey of Tuscon, Az., Ellie Wieweck of Beecher Falls, and Bill Jones and wife, Shelley, of Beecher Falls; a brother, Ernest Squeglia of Woburn, Mass.; two sisters, Bobbie Donahue of Raynham, Mass., and Sandra McGinley; a special cousin, Ann Rice of Connecticut; numerous grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

JoAnne is preceded in death by a sister, Dolores Sampson.

There will be no calling hours. A private family service will be held at a later date at the convenience of the family.

Expressions of sympathy in JoAnne's memory may be made to the Two Rivers Ride for Cancer, c/o Rosemary Mulliken at the First Colebrook Bank, 132 Main Street, Colebrook, NH 03576.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home, Colebrook, NH.

“ Hi, Mum well your time of year is here and I look at the tree and think she would love this, or hanging Christmas cards I can't help but close my eyes and kiss and hug you in my mind.

We are all doing well. And one day we will all be together again. Until that time know you are always in our hearts. Love and miss you so very much every day.

“ Hi, mum it's been a long time. I needed to visit, I have so much to tell you I know you are watching over all of us but I miss your advise, your ear, your guidance. Life has had so many bumps and turns since you went away. I guess coming here makes me feel as if you are really hearing me that we are somehow connecting. I just wanted you to know although it has been some time not a day goes by that I don't think of you. I miss you with each days passing and I love you even more.

“ Hi, mum thinking about you and missing you. Christmas is just around the corner and this is such a hard holiday, not a day passes you are not thought of. I listen to Christmas songs and they bring me right back to my childhood with you turning on the stereo and singing along. Baking special holiday cookies are the same way. It's just hard. Knowing you are at peace and no longer in pain comforts my heart, although we can't sit and talk about nothing, you are always always in my thoughts and heart. “ Words cannot touch the loss we all feel. So many times in life we take things for granted, a ray of sunshine on our face, the smile of a passing stranger, the gift of family. So many times when we are awoken to how short life is it is usually to late. To late to let people know how much they are needed, to late to share a warm embrace. Life passes us all by. Lets all remember the good times we shared as a family, the good memories of growing up with aunts living upstairs, grandparents living next door, cousins living downstairs. In the death of Auntie Joanne lets take a moment to remember the caring qualities that have been instilled in this family. Let us all remember how deeply she was loved and how deeply she will be missed. I didnt say it soon enough but I love you aunt joanne. Love Donna##imported-begin##Donna Donahue##imported-end##

“ Terri,
We never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories.

"Death leaves a heartache no one can heal but love leaves a memory no one can steal".

Our prayers are with your family and friends,

“ To all of the Jones Family,
We are so sorry for the loss of your Wife, Mother, Sister and friend.
She is at peace now, and all the great memories - maybe it was a phone conversation that ended in a laugh, a hug or a kiss, or a song that she loved, will be the memory that reminds you of her and makes you smile.

She loved all of you & will be forever in your hearts.

“ *To my family, Mum was a wonderful, wife, mother, friend, teacher, nurse. She will be in our hearts always, she is at peace now and will be watching over us, to guide us through whatever journey's we must face. Although we will miss her she will always be there when ever we need her. We love and miss you so very much mum.
