

John D. Angevine

December 13, 1942 - December 3, 2014

STEWARTSTOWN – John D. Angevine, 71, died peacefully at his home in Stewartstown, surrounded by his loving family, on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 3, 2014.

Born in Upton, Me., on Dec. 13, 1942, he was the youngest of 11 children of the late John A. and Gladys (Lombard) Angevine. John was a 1960 graduate of Berlin High School.

After graduation, he served for 3 years with the 92nd Engineers Battalion in the U.S. Army. Upon returning home, he worked for the Beecher Falls Div. of Ethan Allen, drove logging trucks and then found his true passion when he purchased Creampoke Farm in 1970 which he operated successfully as a dairy farm for 20 years with his family. John and his wife Connie then purchased Colebrook Feeds and operated it for 23 years until their retirement in 2012.

John enjoyed the simple things in life—watching the sun go down from camp, observing wildlife around the farm, and enjoying the company of visitors who loved the farm, too. He will be remembered as a dedicated steward of the land. His family was everything to him and he often bragged about how close they were. Every Sunday, John and Connie hosted a family breakfast for their children and grandchildren and anyone else who stopped by. There was always room for one more, and everyone was always made to feel welcome. He looked forward to Sunday morning projects that his family helped with. He had a strong work ethic and sense of loyalty which he instilled in his family. John loved music and loved to sing while his grandson Benjamin played guitar. And he loved to talk about the “old days” with his grandson Darren, and make furniture for his granddaughter, Anika. John could find humor in any situation and he liked to tease those whom he loved the most. His favorite quote was, “And on the 8th day, God looked down on his planned paradise and said, ‘I need a caretaker.’ So, God made a farmer.”

John is survived by his wife of almost 52 years, Constance “Connie” (Rancloes) Angevine of Stewartstown; three children, Michael Angevine and wife Faith of Stewartstown, Linda Hook and husband Robert of Brunswick, Vt., and Beth Goudreau and husband Paul of Stewartstown; five grandchildren, Benjamin Hook, Darren Goudreau, Anika Goudreau, Jason Hook and Amy (Hook) Parsons; his in-laws, Glenna & Frank Rancloes of Stewartstown; a brother, Avery Angevine of Bethel, Me.; a sister, Mary Agnes Deblois of Shelburne, NH; as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by 3 brothers and 5 sisters.

There will be no public calling hours. A memorial service with military honors will be held at 11 a.m. on John’s 72nd birthday, Sat., Dec. 13, at the Monadnock Congregational Church in Colebrook with The Rev. Rebecca Larson officiating.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Mr. Angevine may be made to the Northwoods Home Health & Hospice, 278 Main St., Lancaster, NH 03584.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements in NH are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman
Funeral Home in Colebrook.

“ John, Janet and I would like to say "We'll see you again, My friend." When we come to visit Connie, we'll see you. When we talk to your family, well see you. When Ben plays his music, we'll see you. When we visit the camp and the farm--the places you loved, we'll see you. When we weed the garden, we'll see you--you said "A weed is a plant too, just growing in the wrong place." Then we'll remember the twinkle in your eye and your wonderful smile. Thank you for sharing your wonderful sense of humor and your special love for your family. Peter and Janet

“ John was a kind gentle man who will be missed by all. It was always a treat to stop by the store, have a coffee, plague the parrot, trade a few stories.. The kids used to love going to the farm, and there was always an extra place at the table, stories to be told, history to be remembered, laughter, and just so many good memories. We lit a candle when we heard... Didn't get to visit much over the last ten years, life slips us by, then it's over. We wish you peace in your next journey John.... Paul & Sam Amey

“ Connie, Mike, Linda, Beth, and the Angevine Family,

Angie, Eric, Emily, and I would like to add our condolences to the many other heartfelt sentiments that John and you so richly deserve.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-4 For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance.

We take peace that John is with our Lord in heaven, watching over his family. May God bless you all.

“ Connie and Angenvine Family,

Please accept our deepest condolences on the passing of John, a devoted husband and farther. I always made it a point each time a returned to Colebrook to pay a visit to you and John (at the feed store and at the farm). His passing is a great loss to all of us and I am sure he will be missed by everyone that came in contact with him. Our thoughts and prayers are with you, and you can rest assured that he will live forever in our hearts and minds.

....so many memories. We'll keep them coming Connie. John's love for life, his humor. I'm honored to have him apart of my life.... I'm going to miss you telling me the history of using the wood stove at your camp when Sandy and I stayed there, Or your road trip to Rangeley to see the crash bomber site. The excitement of finding a potato digger. Sunday breakfast with the kids and who ever else was around. Haying with you in the 70's when I came home from the service, Homer never served beer. You and Connie always welcomed us, all us cousins. Rest easy my friend till me meet again

Connie, Mike, Linda, Beth and family. It's with heavy hearts when we heard John had passed. We have lost such a good friend and if we lived to be 100 we could never pay him back for all the good things he did for us. We have such good memories, and as the years go by we will be able to sit and talk with you and laugh and share those good times.

*Our love and prayers to you all
